

If we act together, on these principles, as public representatives, civil servants, business people, youth, workers and citizens, we can overcome the challenges of tough economic times and difficult adjustments.

In acting together we can address declining confidence and the retreat of capital, and we can combat emerging patterns of predatory behaviour and corruption.

We are conscious of the difficulties we face. Our resilience as a nation, black and white, can propel us to a better future if we make the right choices.

Honourable Speaker, I hereby table before the House:

- The 2016 Budget Speech,
- The 2016 Budget Review, including

African Dept.,2016-02-03 The 2015 Article IV Consultation discusses key issues related to the economic growth of Lesotho Although Lesotho achieved solid economic growth with only moderate inflation in the several years this growth has failed to reduce poverty in the country

Lesotho's major chunk of revenue comes from South African Customs Union to finance large government expenditures but this revenue will fall sharply in fiscal year 2016/17. Despite having substantial international reserves and fiscal buffers, a major fiscal adjustment over the next two to three years will be needed to maintain macroeconomic stability. The private sector needs to be the engine for job creation to strengthen inclusiveness. The Report: Kenya 2016 Oxford Business Group, 2015-12-15. The Kenyan economy performed comparatively well in 2015 even in the face of global economic headwinds. According to the World Bank, GDP growth is expected to reach 5.4% for the year, aided in large part by sustained public sector capital spending. The country has a strong private sector and received encouraging signs of new oil, gas, and water reserves which, if harnessed appropriately, bode well for future growth. The country's medium to long term economic outlook is robust. With over 40% of the population under the age of 15, Kenya stands to benefit from a significant demographic dividend provided that sufficient jobs can be found when this population enters the workforce. The country has a reasonably sized industrial base, competitive infrastructure, and a large agricultural sector, all of which offer opportunities for capital intensive investment.
