in Africa A. Babs Fafunwa,J. U. Aisiku,2022-09-01 First published in 1982 Education in Africa offers a comprehensive treatment of the development of education in Africa Until now only scattered documents on educational growth in individual countries have been available works devoted to Africa as a whole have tended towards the general and have by and large been written by outside observers This book is a collection of illuminating syntheses of major trends in educational development in Africa by renowned African educationists and is the first attempt to supply the need for a comprehensive book on African education written from an African viewpoint All but one of the chapters were written specially for the book by leading African educators each of whom has had a distinguished career and wide experience in education in his or her own country they represent eleven nations in all The volume is designed for African students teachers and administrators and will also be welcomed by educational planners and by scholars working in the fields of comparative education and the history of education It will be of special interest to departments institutions and faculties of education in all the universities and colleges of education in Africa and to educators and students worldwide who are concerned with comparative African education

Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization Iddah Aoko Otieno,2018-06-20 This book presents a comprehensive institutional level analysis of a single public institution of higher education in the Republic of Kenya using the case study method of investigation It is the first case study to use both qualitative and quantitative research methodology to illuminate the experiences of Kenyan public universities with internationalization post independence Focusing on Kenya s oldest national public university the University of Nairobi s experimentation with internationalization Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization is a first in the East African region The book argues that attempts by institutions of higher education in Africa to engage in internationalization with the much more older and well established

IHEs in the developed world has perpetuated the colonial legacy that has relegated these institutions to the position of the Other in the new international order Several policy implications are offered on what it means to participate in internationalization from a marginal peripheral position The conventional assumption that political independence would bring to most African countries and by extension their national public universities a period of freedom from political economic and cultural subjugation and exploitation by the more powerful world nations has proved elusive This book is intended for a broad audience in the field of Comparative International Education The mixed research methods used in this book will certainly appeal to instructors students and general readers interested in understanding the experiences of historically marginalized developing World institutions of higher education with internationalization American Universities and Colleges James J. Murray, 2021-06-21 No detailed description available for American Universities and Colleges Politics and higher education in East Africa from the 1920s to 1970 Bhekithemba R. Mngomezulu, 2012-01-01 The main objective of this book is to establish the salient reasons why higher education was developed in East Africa and specifically why the Federal University of East Africa was constituted The book will identify the factors responsible for the collapse of this regional institution in June 1970 Another objective of this book is to demonstrate how the history of the University of East Africa sheds light on colonial and post colonial policies on education especially higher education as a contribution to educational planning in contemporary Africa Issues of Governance, Security, and Development in Contemporary Africa Mohamed Saliou Camara, Alem Hailu, Sabella O. Abidde, 2023-12-15 Governance security and development are three critical components of a dialectical nexus that is both dominant and determinant for any objective and fruitful quest for the understanding of the trajectory of a country a region or in the case of Africa a continent from a colonial past to a neocolonial and meta colonial present and toward a future of strategic optimal independence and self reliance That colonial past and the ensuing neocolonial and meta colonial present have made these critical components and the dialectical nexus that they form particularly challenging for the African continent For this reason Issues of Governance Security and Development in Contemporary Africa offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of the challenges that contemporary Africa faces within these critical areas as well as the resources and prospects that the continent possesses and can leverage to overcome the said challenges Using case studies involving a range of countries across the continent Mohamed Saliou Camara Alem Hailu and Sabella O Abidde argue that Africa needs to decolonize the terms of reference that guide its nation building statecraft and national development agenda in ways that will facilitate the establishment of viable systems of governance and security and the promotion of genuine development Proceedings of 5th International Conference on Medical Informatics & Telemedicine 2017 ConferennceSeries, 2017-08-25 August 31 01 September 2017 Prague Czech Republic Key Topics Medical Informatics Medical Informatics and Biomedical Informatics Medical Informatics and Telemedicine Medical Informatics and Clinical Informatics Medical Informatics and Health System Medical Informatics and Telehealth Medical
