St. Stephen's Review ,1889 Selected Water Resources Abstracts ,1991 The Politics of Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Richard Wilson,2001-05-02 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC was set up to deal with the human rights violations of apartheid during the years 1960 1994 However as Wilson shows the TRC s restorative justice approach to healing the nation did not always serve the needs of communities at a local level Based on extended anthropological fieldwork this book illustrates the impact of the TRC in urban African communities in Johannesburg While a religious constituency largely embraced the commission s religious redemptive language of reconciliation Wilson argues that the TRC had little effect on popular ideas of justice as retribution This provocative study deepens our understanding of post apartheid South Africa and the use of human rights discourse It ends on a call for more cautious and realistic expectations about what human rights institutions can achieve in democratizing countries The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department,1959 African Ecology and Human Evolution Francois Bourliere,2017-07-12 The record of man s early evolution though still fragmentary is more complete on the African continent than anywhere else in the world The ecological context of this evolution however has been studied intensively only in recent years This pioneering volume draws together eminent specialists from many fields physical anthropologists zoologists geologists paleontologists and prehistorians who summarize here the results of their diverse research on Pleistocene environments and the cultural and biological evolution of man in Africa This volume was sponsored by the Wenner Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research Inc which met at Burg Wartenstein Austria The editors have field experience in Africa especially eastern and equatorial Africa This experience is coupled with their awareness of the need to integrate results of numerous field studies bearing on the biological behavioral evolution of higher primates with other field studies on the paleoecology and the mammalian ecology of sub Saharan Africa The book includes contributions on Pleistocene stratigraphy and climatic changes throughout the African continent on the origin and evolution of the earliest man like creatures in Africa on the dating distribution and adaptation of Pleistocene hunter gatherer peoples and on the ecology biology and social behavior of African primate and human populations The chapters reflect vividly the state of current knowledge at the time and indicate paths for future research Over 100 maps and figures detailed bibliographies and a comprehensive index contribute to the importance of the volume for basic reference use

African Ecology and Human Evolution Francis Clark Howell,François Bourlière,2008 The record of man s early evolution though still fragmentary is more complete on the African continent than anywhere else in the world The ecological context of this evolution however has been studied intensively only in recent years This pioneering volume draws together eminent specialists from many fields physical anthropologists zoologists geologists paleontologists and prehistorians who summarize here the results of their diverse research on Pleistocene environments and the cultural and biological evolution of
