after school learning centers spelling bees and math competitions that it has spawned. It is a world where immigrant families vie with other Americans to be at the head of the class putting in hours of studying and testing in order to gain a foothold in the supposed meritocracy of American public education. A world where enrichment centers like Kumon have seen 194 percent growth since 2002 and target children as young as three. Even families and teachers who avoid after school academics are getting swept up. Drawing on over 100 in-depth interviews with teachers, tutors, principals, children, and parents, Dhingra delves into the why people participate in this phenomenon and examines how schools, families, and communities play their part. Moving past Tiger Mom stereotypes, he addresses why Asian American and white families practice what he calls hyper education and whether or not it makes sense. By taking a behind-the-scenes look at the Scripps National Spelling Bee, other national competitions, and learning centers, Dhingra shows why good schools, good grades, and good behavior are seen as not enough for high-achieving students and their parents, and why the education arms race is likely to continue to expand.

The Best Boy in the United States Of America Dr. Ron Wolfson, 2015-07-31. Powerful life lessons in a funny and moving portrait of family, community, and spiritual discovery in America. Hilarious and heartfelt, Ron Wolfson's inspiring memoir is filled with stories of growing up in a warm family, encountering colorful characters like the merchants of Omaha and the famous Warren Buffett navigating adolescence, and learning never to underestimate his mother. With easygoing Midwestern humor and profound poignancy, Ron's true stories of family and community in the United States of America will resonate with anyone seeking to shape stronger families, create compelling communities, and live their best life: a life of joy and laughter, meaning and purpose, and yes, blessings and kisses. I am the best boy in the United States of America. That's what my grandfather, my Zaydie, called me from the time I was a little child in Omaha, Nebraska. I know it's true because this is a true story. All my stories are true. Zaydie loved three things: his family, his business, and his adopted country, the United States of America. I never ever heard Zaydie say the United States. It was always da United States of America in his thick Russian accent. For Louie Paperny, each one of his nine grandchildren was the best boy or the best girl in the United States of America. We believed him. I believed him. And in a certain way, I've lived the rest of my life trying to be that best boy from Chapter 1.
