2015 Outstanding Book Award Association for Educational Communications Technology AECT A book that explores the problematic connection between education policy and practice while pointing in the direction of a more fruitful relationship Inside the Black Box of Classroom Practice is a provocative culminating statement from one of America s most insightful education scholars and leaders Inside the Black Box of Classroom Practice takes as its starting point a strikingly blunt question With so many major structural changes in U S public schools over the past century why have classroom practices been largely stable with a modest blending of new and old teaching practices leaving contemporary classroom lessons familiar to earlier generations of school goers It is a question that ought to be of paramount interest to all who are interested in school reform in the United States It is also a question that comes naturally to Larry Cuban whose much admired books have focused on various aspects of school reform their promises wrong turns partial successes and troubling failures In this book he returns to this territory but trains his focus on the still baffling fact that policy reforms no matter how ambitious or determined have generally had little effect on classroom conduct and practice Cuban explores this problem from a variety of angles Several chapters look at how teachers in responding to major policy initiatives persistently adopt changes and alter particular routine practices while leaving dominant ways of teaching largely undisturbed Other chapters contrast recent changes in clinical medical practice with those in classroom teaching comparing the practical effects of varying medical and education policies The book s concluding chapter distills important insights from these various explorations taking us inside the black box of the book s title those workings that have repeatedly transformed dramatic policy initiatives into familiar and largely unchanged classroom practices Standards-Driven 7th Grade Math (Textboo Nathaniel Max Rock,2006-02 This

S. Yeh,2011-03-01 As a consequence of the federal No Child Left Behind NCLB law there is tremendous pressure on school principals teachers school superintendents district staff state departments of education and governors to maximize the increase in student achievement that is obtained with every dollar of expenditure Currently teachers are forced to rely on extremely inefficient approaches that take enormous amounts of time both during the school day and throughout the K 12 learning years This is experienced in terms of the reduced time that is available to teach subjects other than math and reading as schools resort to double periods of math double periods of reading and enormous amounts of remedial instruction that directly reduce the time available for other subjects including science art and music In contrast this book suggests that student achievement may be increased in a way that is not only cost effective in dollar terms but efficient in the sense that it does not rely on unusual investments in the time required to obtain results The book draws upon a wealth of cost effectiveness data to dispel common notions about what works in addressing the achievement gap increased expenditure per pupil charter schools voucher programs increased educational accountability class size reduction comprehensive school reform increased teacher salaries more selective teacher recruitment the use of value added methods to measure and reward teacher performance the use of National Board teacher certification to identify high performing teachers and a host of other approaches A classified catalogue of ... education works in use in the United Kingdom and its dependencies

United Kingdom,1887 Reflective Practice of Multi-Unicultural School Leaders Dr. Roberto F. Casas,Dr. Paul A. Rodríguez,2012-02-21 We have written this book because of our unique and real concern for improving education for children who are at risk of school failure Whether these students are of different ethnicities or speak different languages the students are not failures but have difficulty maneuvering in a system we call school In order to improve education we have to improve schools and the practices of school leaders This transformation of schools requires change and improvement of individuals in school leadership positions In order to change school leaders and their practices toward improvement we must replicate what is working for kids through reflective practice Osterman and Kottkamp 1993 offered this perspective We believe that reflective practice an approach to educational improvement that is both situational and places the professional in the very center of the attempt to create improvement not only stands in contrast to most other current ideas but has the greatest potential of any approach improving individuals and through them schools and education p vii The book was written because we share professional practices and intellectual interests in reflection and reflective practice We are passionate that reflection has the best hope and significant change in how leaders examine their personal beliefs values and behaviors in such a way that members of the school community realize that it is they who must adapt their practices to meet the needs of students at risk and the diverse communities they serve However before we discuss the importance of reflective practice we need to arrive at a definition of reflective practice Schon 1983 defines reflective practice as the capacity to reflect on action so as to engage in a process of continuous learning Similarly Bolton 2010 stated that reflective practice involves playing critical attention to practical values and theories which inform everyday action by examining practice reflectively and reflexively This leads to developmental insight Another idea by Boud et al 1985 states Reflection is an important human activity in which people recapture their experience think about it mull it over and evaluate it It is this working with experience that is important in learning As for education Larrivee 2000 argues Reflective practice refers to the process of the educator studying his or her own teaching methods and determining what works best for students It involves the consideration of the ethical consequences of classroom procedures on students

The Turnaround ToolKit Lynn Winters, Joan Herman, 2011 Lynn Winters and Joan Herman's The Turnaround Toolkit is written for school leaders who are focused on transforming instruction and who may be working under significant time constraints to reverse declining student achievement or public perceptions of school failure Based on the evidence that simply implementing continuous improvement is not enough to close the achievement gap The Turnaround Toolkit provides a nine step formative evaluation program designed to achieve an immediate and consistent focus on improving instruction in order to bolster student achievement In a straightforward and accessible fashion Herman and Winters explain three overarching Turnaround Tasks that frame these steps and the necessary and sometimes drastic actions that must be taken by school leaders as they use data to strategically choose implement monitor and revise school interventions A dedicated online toolkit offers numerous worksheets and templates that support each stage of the process and help school leaders scaffold the work of educators to put an aggressive turnaround plan into action while a leadership guide at the end of the book provides guidance to turnaround teams and facilitators
