Wheeler, 2004 For courses in the Guidance and Management of Young Children This text examines the nature of conflict among 2 to 8 year olds from a research based constructivist ecological perspective integrating themes of caring building classroom community connecting curriculum involving family and community and responding to the current educational climate The author thoroughly discusses children's conflicts emphasizing that peer and community culture make up the foundation for preventing and resolving conflict and advocates teaching conflict resolution skills via a three layer cake of understanding management and resolution Coverage presents ways to create a caring classroom both in physical environment and curriculum to work with other adults in a child's life and to implement peer mediation Throughout the material stresses the need to understand all children in light of applicable theory and current best practice in culturally responsive and inclusive classrooms

The Classrooms All Young Children Need Patricia M. Cooper, 2009-10-15 Teacher and author Vivian Paley is highly regarded by parents educators and other professionals for her original insights into such seemingly everyday issues as play story gender and how young children think In The Classrooms All Young Children Need Patricia M Cooper takes a synoptic view of Paley's many books and articles charting the evolution of Paley's thinking while revealing the seminal characteristics of her teaching philosophy This careful analysis leads Cooper to identify a pedagogical model organized around two complementary principles a curriculum that promotes play and imagination and the idea of classrooms as fair places where young children of every color ability and disposition are welcome With timely attention paid to debates about the reduction in time for play in the early childhood classroom the role of race in education and No Child Left Behind The Classrooms All Young Children Need will be embraced by anyone tasked with teaching our youngest pupils
