Companion to the Most Celebrated Private Galleries of Art in London, 1844 The Collector, 1884 The Intimate Portrait Stephen Lloyd, Kim Sloan, 2008 Published to accompany the exhibition held at the Scottish National Portrait Gallery Edinburgh from 25 October 2008 to 1 February 2009 and at the British Museum from 5 March to 31 May 2009 T p verso

Matthew Boulton Dr Malcolm Dick, Mr Kenneth Quickenden, Ms Sally Baggott, 2013-02-28 Matthew Boulton was a leading industrialist entrepreneur and Enlightenment figure Often overshadowed through his association with James Watt his Soho manufactories put Birmingham at the centre of what has recently been termed The Industrial Enlightenment Exploring his many activities and manufactures and the regional national and international context in which he operated this publication provides a valuable index to the current state of Boulton studies Combining original contributions from social economic and cultural historians with those of historians of science technology and art archaeologists and heritage professionals the book sheds new light on the general culture of the eighteenth century including patterns of work production and consumption of the products of art and industry The book also extends and enhances knowledge of the Enlightenment industrialization and the processes of globalization in the eighteenth century The Gallery at Cleveland House Anne Nellis

Richter, 2024-06-27 In 1806 the Marquess and Marchioness of Stafford opened a gallery at Cleveland House London to display their internationally renowned collection of Old Master paintings to the public A ticket to the gallery s Wednesday afternoon openings was a sought after prize granting access to the collection and the house s dazzling interior in the company of artists celebrities and Britain s elite This book explores the gallery s interior through the lens of its abundant material culture including paintings in gilded frames furniture silver oil lamps flower arrangements and the numerous printed catalogues and guidebooks that made the gallery visible to those who might never cross its threshold Through detailed analysis of these objects and a wide range of other visual material textual and archival sources the book presents the gallery at Cleveland House as a methodological case study on how the display of art in the 19th century was shaped by notions about public and private space domesticity and the role art galleries played in the formation of national culture In doing so the book also explains how and why magnificent private galleries and the artworks and objects they contained gripped the public imagination during a critical period of political and cultural transformation during and after the Napoleonic Wars Combining historical cultural and material analysis the book will make essential reading for researchers in British art in the Regency period museum studies collecting studies social history and the histories of interior decoration and design in the 18th and 19th centuries Mary Cassatt Griselda Pollock, 2022-07-07 A close ally of Camille Pissarro Berthe Morisot and Edgar Degas Mary Cassatt was the only American painter at the heart of the Impressionist group in Paris Highly respected on both sides of the Atlantic Cassatt was a forthright advocate for womens intellectual creative and political emancipation She brought her discerning gaze and compositional inventiveness across many media to the subtle social interactions of women in public and private spaces such as at the theatre and in moments of intimacy with children where she was one of the most attentive and unsentimental analysts of the infant body and the child's emerging personality Tracing key moments in Cassatt's long career art historian Griselda Pollock highlights Cassatt's extensive artistic training across Europe analysing her profound study of Old Masters while revealing her intelligent understanding of both Manet and Courbet Pollock also provides close readings of Cassatt's paintings and her singular vision of women in modernity Now revised with a new preface updates to the bibliography and colour illustrations throughout this book offers a rich perspective on the core concerns of a major Impressionist artist through the frames of class gender space and difference The
