Child Abuse, Domestic Violence, and Animal Abuse Frank R. Ascione, Phil Arkow, 1999 Evidence is mounting that animal abuse frequently embedded in families scarred by domestic violence and child abuse and neglect often predicts the potential for other violent acts As early intervention is critical in the prevention and reduction of aggression this book encourages researchers and professionals to recognize animal abuse as a significant problem and a human public health issue that should be included as a curriculum topic in training The book is an interdisciplinary source book of original essays that examines the relations between animal maltreatment and human interpersonal violence expands the scope of research in this growing area and provides practical assessment and documentation strategies to help professionals confronting violence do their jobs better by attending to these connections As an outgrowth of the Latham Foundation's 1995 training manual Breaking the Cycles of Violence this book is a historic step in helping professionals from these disciplines as well as the general public recognize the cyclical and insidious nature of family violence and provides training in recognizing peripheral forms of family violence outside a family's immediate purview It encourages cross disciplinary prevention and intervention strategies with an ultimate goal of reducing the levels of violence which is such a great societal and cultural concern today This book brings together for the first time all of the leaders in this emerging field They examine contemporary research and programmatic issues encourage cross disciplinary interactions and describe innovative programs in the field today Also included are vivid first person accounts from survivors whose experiences included animal maltreatment among other forms of family violence Child Abuse Domestic Violence and Animal Abuse provides professional communities of psychologists and child welfare specialists with a deeper higher and more encompassing awareness and understanding of the crucial linking of caring for animals and children in human experience The combination of careful research documentation and compelling narrative accounts are blended into a rich resource to help professionals concerned citizens and parents understand how the ethics of caring are not bounded by species

The Frugal Science Teacher, PreK-5: Strategies and Activities Linda Froschauer, 2010-06-04      Democratic Habits in the Art Classroom Elizabeth Sutton, 2023 This volume explores the ways in which practicing K 12 art educators can engage with students to develop democratic habits The contributors present case studies based on action research conducted in their own classrooms as part of their master s in arts education The text is divided into three sections that correspond to habits the author teachers cultivated in their classroom choice voice and caring for community Each author presents real world examples for development of not only art skills but also ways of being and interacting that allow humans to contribute meaningfully to the world Readers will hear from art educators who strive to teach their students ownership and empowerment through problem solving independence and responsibility This timely book shows how art education is a bastion of freedom in public education where students and teachers can think and act collaboratively and critically Book Features Offers examples of transformative teaching that give students voice choice and opportunities to care for community Provides theory as well as replicable models teachers can use Addresses the difficulty of balancing student and teacher needs within the politically embattled field of education Shares the voices of art educators in Midwest classrooms ranging from elementary to high school rural to urban communities Contributors Elizabeth Bloomberg Jeffery Rufus Byrd Ashley Cardamone Kathryn Christensen Michelle Cox Jodi Fenton Samantha Goss Maddison Maddock Wendy Miller Sandra Nyberg Lauren Roush Elizabeth Sutton and Heather Walker
