Quality of Life James J. Walter, Thomas Anthony Shannon, 1990 For the first time this book brings together many of the important essays that have shaped the debate on the quality of life. Anna Jinghua: Seer of time, travel and transcendence... Kristina Evans, 2022-12-29 Anna Jinghua returned to her ancestral home. It was meant to be a holiday with friends but every hundred years there is a disturbance. The time wasn't right to travel as a prediction was unfolding. She could have returned home but instead followed a trail of tales where she accepted the inevitable. Being a seer of the future there were many threads to weave and with the help of immortals she learned of a diversion. Mars isn't a place for the future but a connection with the past. To get to your destination all YOU need to do is look into a mirror. School Life, 1920

Friends' Intelligencer and Journal, 1898 Learning Disability and other Intellectual Impairments Louise Clark, Peter Griffiths, 2008-04-30 Learning Disability and other Intellectual Impairments is the first book of its kind to explore the similarities and parallels between the needs of people with various types of intellectual impairments as they encounter health services. It not only looks at the shared issues from a bio psycho social perspective but also discusses the transferable skills that a practitioner can develop working across these groups. It identifies the key skills and knowledge that professionals need in order to work with intellectually impaired patients whether they are in the hospital or at home. Rather than just focusing on people with learning disabilities this text attempts to break down barriers and look at some of the issues associated with care and treatment of people who have intellectual impairment for a variety of reasons including acquired brain injury dementia and long term mental health issues where cognition has been affected. Learning Disability and other Intellectual Impairments is suitable for health care practitioners at all levels who work with people who have intellectual impairments in their work and who wish to further develop their skills and knowledge to care for this neglected client group.
