The Postcolonial Low Countries Elleke Boehmer,Sarah De Mul,2012-06-01 The Postcolonial Low Countries is the first book to bring together critical and comparative approaches to the emergent field of neerlandophone postcolonial studies The collection of essays ranges across the cultures and literatures of the Netherlands and Belgium and establishes an encounter between postcolonial theoretical discourses from both within and without the region Each one of the contributions puts under pressure the definitive concepts of postcolonial studies in its more conventional anglophone or francophone formation as well as perceptions of the Low Countries Belgium and the Netherlands as lying outside or to the side of the postcolonial domain In the Low Countries local and regional issues concerning multiculturalism and colonial belatedness have raised important questions about the possible grounds on which postcolonial critical concepts might be not only translated but also generated afresh to suit these paradoxically new contexts As The Postcolonial Low Countries incisively demonstrates the Low Countries demand a careful rearticulation of such postcolonial readymades as hybridity accommodation and creolization Gathering together contributions from both internationally renowned scholars and newly established researchers in the field The Postcolonial Low Countries maps previously underexplored national and transnational literary critical trajectories The book challenges in boundary shifting ways current readings of the so described multicultural and postcolonial Netherlands and Belgium
