Time, Media, and Visuality in Post-Revolutionary France Iris Moon, Richard Taws, 2021-07-01 The radical break with the past heralded by the French Revolution in 1789 has become one of the mythic narratives of our time Yet in the drawn out afterlife of the Revolution and through subsequent periods of Empire Restoration and Republic the question of what such a temporal transformation might involve found complex often unresolved expression in visual and material culture This diverse collection of essays draws attention to the eclectic objects and forms of visuality that emerged in France from the beginning of the French Revolution through to the end of the July Monarchy in 1848 It offers a new account of the story of French art s modernity by exploring the work of genre painters and miniaturists sign painters and animal artists landscapists architects and printmakers as they worked out what it meant to be post revolutionary Art and Religion in Eighteenth-Century

Europe Nigel Aston, 2009-07-15 Eighteenth century Europe witnessed monumental upheavals in both the Catholic and Protestant faiths and the repercussions rippled down to the churches religious art forms Nigel Aston now chronicles here the intertwining of cultural and institutional turmoil during this pivotal century The sustained popularity of religious art in the face of competition from increasingly prevalent secular artworks lies at the heart of this study Religious art staked out new spaces of display in state institutions palaces and private collections the book shows as well as taking advantage of patronage from monarchs such as Louis XIV and George III who funded religious art in an effort to enhance their monarchical prestige Aston also explores the motivations and exhibition practices of private collectors and analyzes changing Catholic and

Protestant attitudes toward art The book also examines purchases made by corporate patrons such as charity hospitals and religious confraternities and considers what this reveals about the changing religiosity of the era as well An in depth historical study Art and Religion in Eighteenth Century Europe will be essential for art history and religious studies scholars alike ABM, 1986 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971

Ingres & Delacroix Through Degas & Puvis de Chavannes Shepherd Gallery, 1975 Poussin and Nature Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2008 The work of the great French painter Nicolas Poussin 1594-1665 is most often associated with classically inspired settings and figures depicting solemn scenes from mythology or the Bible Yet he also created some of the most influential landscapes in Western art endowing them with a poetic quality that has been admired by artists as different as Constable Turner and Cezanne As the British critic William Hazlitt noted in 1844 This great and learned man might be said to see nature through the glass of time This beautiful catalogue presents the first in depth examination of Poussin's landscapes Featured here are more than 40 paintings ranging from the artist's early Venetian inspired pastorals to his grandly structured and austere works designed as metaphors or allegories for the processes of nature Also included are approximately 60 drawings and essays by internationally renowned scholars who examine the painter's visual literary and philosophical influences as well as his relationships with his patrons and his place in the art historical canon Publisher description Nineteenth-century Painters and Painting Geraldine Norman, 1977-01-01

Historical Abstracts Eric H. Boehm, 2000 Antonio Canova and the Politics of Patronage in Revolutionary and Napoleonic Europe Christopher M. S. Johns, 1998-01-01 The sculptor Antonio Canova was the most celebrated artist of a perilously protean and fractious era In revolutionary and Napoleonic Europe while other artists bent to the will of the political powers that commissioned their work producing art in the service of the state Canova managed to resist both threats and blandishments Although he held strong opinions on the issues of his day he avoided direct political or ideological engagement in his sculpture Christopher M S Johns presents the first sustained study of Canova's career in relation to his patrons and contemporary politics In it he enlarges our understanding of an artist whose work is crucial to the evaluation of European art and political history Emulation Thomas Crow, Thomas E. Crow, 2006-01-01 This fascinating and elegant book tells the story of five painters at the center of events in Revolutionary France Jacques Louis David and his first cohort of precocious pupils including the meteoric Jean Germain Drouais and the astonishingly gifted but deeply troubled Anne Louis Girodet Written by a major art historian it interprets in a new and original way the relationships between these men and the paintings they created This new edition includes a revised introduction and incorporates the fruit of recent new research Crow combines excellent formal and stylistic analysis of particular paintings with close attention to the psychological complexities and political and social contexts of the artists lives He delves deeply into David s and his students thematic choices compositional strategies and personal relations in order to make his overarching political and aesthetic arguments Lynn Hunt New Republic A magisterial contribution to the history of art Richard Cobb The Spectator Art Index Retrospective ,1980 Mastery & elegance Alvin L.
