Capturing Talk: The Institutional Practices Surrounding the Transcription of Spoken Language Martha Komter, Helen Fraser, Emma Richardson, Felicity Deamer, Kate Haworth, Debbie

Loakes, 2024-05-22 Across a range of institutional settings practitioners and professionals are eliciting and capturing spoken talk from clients Sarangi 1998 transcribing that talk and later repurposing the transcripts in place of the original interaction This Research Topic seeks both to shed light on this often overlooked institutional process and to encourage further linguistic input into this area of professional practice Transcription is almost always an institutional practice Park Bucholtz 2009 providing a written record of spoken interaction to be used by another party at a later date in another setting or context

There are a number of underappreciated features and consequences of this transformational process which we hope this Research Topic will expose and examine
