The Gospel of Climate Skepticism Robin Globus Veldman, 2019-10-22 Why are white evangelicals the most skeptical major religious group in America regarding climate change Previous scholarship has pointed to cognitive factors such as conservative politics anti science attitudes aversion to big government and theology Drawing on qualitative fieldwork The Gospel of Climate Skepticism reveals the extent to which climate skepticism and anti environmentalism have in fact become embedded in the social world of many conservative evangelicals Rejecting the common assumption that evangelicals skepticism is simply a side effect of political or theological conservatism the book further shows that between 2006 and 2015 leaders and pundits associated with the Christian Right widely promoted skepticism as the biblical position on climate change The Gospel of Climate Skepticism offers a compelling portrait of how during a critical period of recent history political and religious interests intersected to prevent evangelicals from offering a unified voice in support of legislative action to address climate change

Christian Tourist Attractions, Mythmaking, and Identity Formation Erin Roberts, Jennifer Eyl, 2018-11-29 Christian Tourist Attractions Mythmaking and Identity Formation examines a sampling of contemporary Christian tourist attractions that position visitors as the inheritors of ancient sacred traditions and make claims about the truth of the historical narratives that they promote Rather than approaching these attractions as sacred expressions of religious experience or as uncontested accounts of history the book applies recent work on mythmaking and identity formation to argue that these presentations of the past function as strategic discourses that serve material concerns in the present From an approach informed by social and materialist theories of religion the volume draws upon a variety of methodological approaches that enable readers to understand the often bewildering array of objects claims demands and activities not to mention the seemingly endless array of gifts and personal items available for purchase that appear at attractions including Ark Encounter the Creation Museum the Holy Land Experience Bible Walk Museum Christian Zionist tours of Israel and the recently opened Museum of the Bible Discourse analysis practice theory rhetorical criticism and embodied theories of cognition help make sense not only of the Christian tourist attractions under examination but also of the ways that religion is entangled with contemporary social political and economic interests more broadly
