Right My College Application Essay

Christine Gacharna,2023-05-12 The college application essay uses a completely different rhetorical mode from the typical five point essays high schoolers are used to writing and that s the catch 22 most students won t learn about rhetorical modes and organizational methods until their undergraduate English courses only first you have to get in In this post COVID era many colleges and universities have made standardized test scores optional for admission which puts even more pressure on students to write an essay that separates them from others in a sea of highly qualified applicants Right My College Application Essay bridges the gap between high school English lit and academic writing at the undergraduate level starting with the college application essay This step by step guide uses powerful visuals easy to follow instructions and sample student essays to guide students in writing organizing and polishing a college application essay that weaves in personal variables to help make them jump off the page Award winning writer newspaper editor former lead faculty and English communications instructor Christine Gacharna spent six years teaching undergraduate writing courses and streamlining the evaluation and assessment of student writing for her faculty peers In this workbook she shares her radically effective trademarked system of Communicate Navigate Punctuate to transform anxiety into a stress free path to crafting a college application essay that helps high school seniors sell themselves to admissions officers land acceptance letters and earn scholarship offers to help them achieve their undergraduate dreams

Authoring A Discipline Maureen Daly

Goggin,2000-05-01 Authoring a Discipline traces the post World War II emergence of rhetoric and composition as a discipline within departments of English in institutions of higher education in the United States Goggin brings to light both the evolution of this discipline and many of the key individuals involved in its development Drawing on archival and oral evidence this history offers a comprehensive and systematic investigation of scholarly journals the editors who directed them and the authors who contributed to them demonstrating the influence that publications and participants have had in the emergence of rhetoric and composition as an independent field of study Goggin considers the complex struggles in which scholars and teachers engaged to stake ground and to construct a professional and disciplinary identity She identifies major debates and controversies that ignited as the discipline emerged and analyzes how the editors and contributors to the major scholarly journals helped to shape and in turn were shaped by the field of rhetoric and composition She also coins a new term discipliniographer to describe those who write the field through authoring and authorizing work thus creating the social and political contexts in which the discipline emerged The research presented here demonstrates clearly how disciplines are social products born of political struggles for both intellectual and material spaces
