My First Flight

My brother and I are going to take a trip to see my grandmother for spring break. She lives far away in Fair City, New York. We will fly on an airplane to get there. My brother has flown on an airplane before, but I have never flown.

I felt scared the whole month before the trip.

My father tried to help me prepare to fly. I packed my bags with care. He got me a pair of ear plugs and a pack of gum. That is going to help my ears pop when I get up in the air.

The day of the flight was here. We drove to the airport. I still felt scared about flying on an airplane.

We checked in for the flight. We then went to find our gate at the airport. I could see the large airplane through the window. I sat in the chair and stared at it.

The person at the airline spoke over the loud speaker. Our flight was delayed because the airplane needed the spare tire repaired. This did not help me to feel less scared.

At last, it was repaired and it was time to board the flight. We took a tall stairway up to the door. I got to my seat and held my breath. As the plane went up into the air, I felt less scared and more carefree. The hair stood up on my arm. I don't know why I had been so scared. Flying on an airplane is great!
