Apart 1958 is probably the best known African novel and has become one of the world's most influential literary masterpieces. Since publication a total of nearly 12 million copies have been sold with translations into more than 50 languages. Despite its undoubted success its apparent simplicity has tended to blind readers to the dazzling storytelling resources and the inventive language plot setting and characterization which first draw them to the novel and keep them reading. This is the ideal guide to the text setting Things Fall Apart in its historical intellectual and cultural contexts offering analyses of its themes style and structure providing exemplary close readings presenting an up to date account of its critical reception and examining its afterlife in literature film and popular culture. It includes points for discussion suggestions for further study and an annotated guide to relevant reading. Resources in Education, 1998. Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 1997. The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge motivation tools and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms. Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities readers get hands on experience in such techniques as mapping webbing anticipation guides booktalks class websites and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature primary sources biographies essays poetry and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading writing speaking listening and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks. Standards and Mastery Learning J. Ronald Gentile, James P. Lalley, 2003-01-06. This book describes the concept of mastery learning in the classroom and the various foundations upon which it is built. Five chapters discuss 1 Understanding Mastery Learning e.g. the learning memory base the measurement base theoretical bases and the brain base 2 Examining the Standards Math Science Social Studies and English Language Arts e.g. mastery as a beginning beyond mastery and standards 3 Planning Standards Based Lessons using Mastery Learning e.g. overlap among state and national standards enrichment and remediation and planning lessons using six elements of mastery learning 4 Implementing Standards and Mastery Learning in the Classroom 13 steps to implementing mastery learning and 5 Professional Development and Mastery Learning e.g. a plan for action and a professional development agenda and teaching for mastery The appendix looks at what the literature can tell e g two approaches to mastery learning empirical evidence research examples and memory by fast and slow learners Contains approximately 160 references SM Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors,2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources THE UNHEARD CRY OF THE IGBO PEOPLE KENNETH
