Publication of the Handbook of Group Decision and Negotiation marks a milestone in the evolution of the group decision and negotiation GDN field. On this occasion editors Colin Eden and Marc Kilgour asked me to write a brief history of the field to provide background and context for the volume. They said that I am in a good position to do so. Actively involved in creating the GDN Section and serving as its chair, founding and leading the GDN journal Group Decision and Negotiation as editor in chief and the book series Advances in Group Decision and Negotiation as editor and serving as general chair of the GDN annual meetings, I accepted their invitation to write a brief history. In 1989, what is now the Institute for Operations Research and the Management Sciences (INFORMS) established its Section on Group Decision and Negotiation. The journal Group Decision and Negotiation was founded in 1992, published by Springer in cooperation with INFORMS and the GDN Section. In 2003, as an extension of the journal, the Springer book series Advances in Group Decision and Negotiation was inaugurated.

International Handbook on Giftedness Larisa Shavinina, 2009-08-12 If you publish, you are trying to create something that is original that stands out from the crowd. Above all, you want to create something you are proud of. Richard Branson, 2002, p. 57. After the publication of my bestselling International Handbook on Innovation, publishers from around the world began to invite me to work on new books with them. When Springer invited me to prepare the International Handbook on Giftedness, I was on a maternity leave with my 3-month-old and my 5-year-old was just starting school. I, however, had wanted to prepare such a Handbook for a long time and was waiting for just the right moment to dive right into such an endeavor. The time had come, and I agreed to prepare a Handbook that would expose readers to new views, great discoveries, and significant advancements of scientific knowledge exactly as Richard Feynman advised. See his opening quote at the beginning of the introductory chapter: I have always been convinced of the paramount significance of the topic of giftedness and gifted education to the world as a whole. There is no doubt that gifted individuals are and will be extremely important to society. One way to understand the history of human civilization is via inventions and discoveries of the gifted. All human cultural development builds on the amazing technological, scientific, educational, and moral achievements of the human mind. Today, people increasingly realize that gifted and talented individuals are even more important than in the past.
