

Chapter Questions The Giver

Chapter 1

1. What impression does the airplane ban give you about the kind of place Jonas lives in?
2. What do you think the word 'released' means? (Hint: Think about what the word means to us and how it could be made into a punishment)
3. What is the most important thing in Jonas community?
4. Why do you think they do not have animals?
5. Do you think you would enjoy the nightly ritual of sharing feelings? Why or why not? (Think about what might be good about it and what might not be good)
6. How would you feel living in a place where rules were so important? Why?
7. What members is each family made up of? Can this be changed?

Chapter 2

8. Jonas is at the same time eager and apprehensive of his 'twelve' ceremony. Tell about a time that you have had mixed feelings about something.
9. What job does Jonas father have? His mother?
10. How is the raising of babies different in their society than ours?
11. What do children get when they turn nine?
12. Which ceremony is most important? Why?
13. The children are given 'assignments' for their adult lives, what would we call these?
14. Would you like to have someone else choose your future? Why or why not? (Remember the choices made are based on observations of you)
15. What happens to children's 'comfort object' when they turn eight? What do you think of this? Why?

Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands-on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites, and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry, and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks.
