Lecture-free Teaching Bonnie S. Wood,2009 The Chinese Communist Youth League Konstantinos Tsimonis,2025-10-01 The Chinese Communist Youth League is the largest youth political organization in the world with over 80 million members Former Chinese President Hu Jintao was a firm supporter of the League and believed that it could play a bigger role in winning the hearts and minds of Chinese youth by actively engaging with their interests and demands Accordingly he provided the League with a new youth work mandate to increase its capacity for responsiveness under the slogan keep the Party assured and the youth satisfied This original investigation of the hitherto unexamined organization uses a combination of interviews surveys and ethnography to explore how the League implemented Hu s mandate at both local and national levels exposing the contradictory nature of some of its campaigns By doing so it also sheds light on the reasons for Xi Jinping s turn against the League during his first term in office The Chinese Communist Youth League Juniority and Responsiveness in a Party Youth Organization develops the original concept of juniority to capture the complex ways that generational power is institutionalized alienating young people from official political processes with significant implications for China s political development The book will be of interest to researchers and students of Chinese politics as well as to scholars of comparative youth politics and sociology

Werbner, 2014-07-20 It is now 50 years since E P Thompson published his classic The Making of the English Working Class The Making of an African Working Class follows Thompson in exploring the formation of working class identity among low paid African workers In arguing for a radical public anthropology of worker identity the book seeks to analyse the cultural legal ideological and experiential dimensions of labour activism often neglected in other labour studies Pnina Werbner shows that by fusing cosmopolitan and local popular cultural forms of protest unionists have created a distinctive vernacular way of being a worker in Botswana one that does not deny workers roots at home or in the countryside while being cognisant of a wider world of cosmopolitan labour rights The assertion of working class dignity honour and respect Pnina argues is a powerful motivating force for manual workers Against legal sceptical approaches The Making of an African Working Class argues that in challenging the government their employer in court manual workers protests and mobilisation are deeply
