

Accrued expense example scenario

- 1 A construction company receives hauling services from a subcontractor.

- 2 The field engineer will track progress and work performed by the subcontractor.

- 3 The accounting department takes the accrual and records it as an adjusting journal entry.

- 4 The expense is debited on the income statement and accounts payable is credited.

- 5 The bill is received for the subcontractor the following month for the work performed.

- 6 The construction company then pays the expense, which debits accounts payable and credits the cash account.
