Radical Help Hilary Cottam, 2018-06-07 How should we live how should we care for one another grow our capabilities to work to learn to love and fully realise our potential This exciting and ambitious book shows how we can re design the welfare state for this century The welfare state was revolutionary it lifted thousands out of poverty provided decent homes good education and security But it is out of kilter now an elaborate and expensive system of managing needs and risks Today we face new challenges Our resources have changed Hilary Cottam takes us through five Experiments to show us a new design We start on a Swindon housing estate where families who have spent years revolving within our current welfare systems are supported to design their own way out We spend time with young people who are helped to make new connections with radical results We turn to the question of good health care and then to the world of work and see what happens when people are given different tools to make change Then we see those over sixty design a new and affordable system of support At the heart of this way of working is human connection Upending the current crisis of managing scarcity we see instead that our capacities for the relationships that can make the changes are abundant We must work with individuals families and communities to grow the core capabilities we all need to flourish Radical Help describes the principles behind the approach the design process that makes the work possible and the challenges of transition It is bold and above all practical It is not a book of dreams It is about concrete new ways of organising that already have been developing across Britain Radical Help creates a new vision and a radically different approach that can take care of us once more from cradle to grave
