

"THE NECKLACE"

About The Necklace Short Story:

The Necklace and Other Stories is a collection of stories written by Maupassant in the 1870s and 1880s, first published in French (mostly in magazines) and later published in collected volumes and translated into a number of foreign languages. This collection includes some of Maupassant's most famous and highly acclaimed work, most notably "Ball-of-Fat," which was his first published story and is considered his masterpiece.

"The Necklace," the titular short story, was extremely popular, featuring Maupassant's signature twist ending. The story was published in 1884 and was later included in Maupassant's short-story collection in 1885 ("Tales of Day and Night"). The influence of Flaubert, celebrated author and Maupassant's friend, is clear in this story: both "The Necklace" and the works of Flaubert feature female characters who are dissatisfied with their lives and are desperate to escape them.

The Necklace Summary:

Mathilde is born to a low-class family; with no money for a dowry, she is married to Monsieur Loisel, a clerk from the Board of Education. Mathilde—now Madame Loisel—had always felt like she should have been upper class, and is unhappy in her married life: she hates their home, their food, and her lack of fine clothing and jewelry. One evening, her husband excitedly presents her with an invitation to attend an event at the Minister of Public Instruction's home. To the surprise of M. Loisel, Mme. Loisel throws the invitation down in dismay, weeping and complaining that she has nothing to wear to such an event. Her husband offers to give her the money for something suitable, but as the day of the ball approaches, she is still dismayed. When asked why, she replies that she is embarrassed to attend the ball without any jewels. Her husband suggests that she ask to borrow some jewels from her rich friend, Madame Forestier. She agrees and goes to see her friend the next day, greedily choosing one of Madame Forestier's finest necklaces. At the ball, Madame Loisel is a hit: elegant, joyful, and desired for waltzes. She and M. Loisel return home at nearly 4 o'clock in the morning, and only when they arrive home does Mme. Loisel realize she lost the necklace. After a week with no news, M. Loisel proclaims that they must replace it, and the couple finds a replacement for 36,000 francs. Loisel has 18,000 francs from his father's will and borrows the remaining sum, bit-by-bit and making "ruinous promises" (p.36) along the
