Pro Music Learning:

Special Needs, Community Music, and Adult Learning Gary McPherson, Graham F. Welch, 2018 Designed for music teachers students and scholars of music education as well as educational administrators and policy makers this fourth book in the set focuses on issues and topics that help to broaden conceptions of music and musical involvement while recognising that development occurs through many forms Contexts for Music Learning and Participation Andrea Creech, Maria Varvarigou, Susan Hallam, 2020-07-27 This book sets out a contemporary perspective on music education highlighting complex intersections between informal non formal and formal practices and contexts At a time when the boundaries between music learning and participation are increasingly blurred this volume is distinctive in challenging a siloed approach to understanding the diverse international music education landscape Instead the book proposes a multi layered continuum of practices that can be applied across a range of formal informal or non formal concepts to support the development of musical possible selves It challenges existing conceptions of learning in music education in part by drawing on research in adult learning but also by considering the contexts in which learning takes place and the extent to which this learning can be classified as formal informal or non formal Music Education Michael Mark, 2013-02-11 Music Education Source Readings from Ancient Greece to Today is a collection of thematically organized essays that illuminate the importance of music education to individuals communities and nations The fourth edition has been expanded to address the significant societal changes that have occurred since the publication of the last edition with a greater focus on current readings in government philosophy psychology curriculum sociology and advocacy This comprehensive text remains an essential reference for music educators today demonstrating the value and support of their profession in the societies in which they live The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Carol Richardson, 2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world s foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference MENC was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade Notably several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi cultural music education gender issues in music education and non musical outcomes of music education Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians health training music teachers and evaluating music education programs Philosophical issues such as musical cognition the philosophy of research theory curriculum and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues In addition to surveying the literature each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels from early childhood to motivation and self regulation this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers researchers and scholars

Entrepreneurial Music Education Kristina Kelman,2020-01-21 This book addresses the gap between formal music education curricula and the knowledge and skills necessary to enter the professional music industry It uses extensive data from a long running research project where high school students were invited to start their own business venture Youth Music Industries Not only did this act as a business venture but it also functioned as a learning environment informed by the concepts of Communities of Practice and social capital Exploring how entrepreneurial qualities were developed their learning was subsequently captured and distilled into a set of design principles in this way a pedagogical approach was developed that can be transferred across the creative industries more broadly This book will be of interest and value to scholars of music education as well as those preparing students for the creative industries
