Imperiled Whiteness Penelope Ingram, 2023-06-23 In Imperiled Whiteness Penelope Ingram examines the role played by media in the resurgence of white nationalism and neo-Nazi movements in the Obama to Trump era. As politicians on the right stoked anxieties about whites losing ground and being left behind, media platforms turned whiteness into a commodity that was packaged and disseminated to a white populace. Reading popular film and television franchises like Planet of the Apes, Star Trek, and The Walking Dead through political flashpoints such as debates over immigration reform, gun control, and Black Lives Matter protests, Ingram reveals how media cultivated feelings of white vulnerability and loss among white consumers. By exploring the convergence of entertainment news and social media in a digital networked environment, Ingram demonstrates how media's renewed attention to imperiled whiteness enabled and sanctioned the return of overt white supremacy exhibited by alt-right groups in the Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville in 2017 and the Capitol riots in 2021.

Commerce Banking Book Dheeraj Kumar Singh, Equal Pay, 2008 Missional fatherhood as praxis to Christian families who grapple with father absence Fazel Ebrihiam Freeks, 2021-12-01 All human beings are made in the image of God and form part of God's creation. Families per se are valuable to God and they can be infused with God-given solutions biblically based to the challenges they are facing. One of these challenges is father absence and it is a devastated social ill in many communities. Even so, missional fatherhood can be a buffer against father absence, an involvement of fathers and numerous family issues. Missional fathers are filled with a God-given mission aiming to instill a love for Christ in the hearts of their children. They are not only called but obliged to lead sacrificial lives for the sake of their families. Their hearts engage with their children on aspects in life that matter the most: Transforming their minds by the Word of God and serving God. The Father is far-reaching. Missional fathers are not only disciple makers in their homes but also in their respective communities. This present-day notion is God's calling on every father to be part of the Gospel and God's holistic mission and is in response to Jesus's Great Commission to make disciples of all people, including families. All who decided and turn to the way of Jesus Christ form part of the mission that God had given the Son. Assyrian and Babylonian Scholarly Text Catalogues Ulrike Steinert, 2018-06-11 The reconstruction of ancient Mesopotamian medical ritual and omen compendia and their complex history is still characterised by many difficulties, debates, and gaps due to fragmentary or unpublished evidence. This book offers the first complete edition of the Assur Medical Catalogue, an 8th or 7th century BCE list of therapeutic texts which forms a core witness for the serialisation of medical compendia in the 1st millennium BCE The volume presents detailed analyses of this and several other related catalogues of omen series and rituals constituting the corpora of divination and healing disciplines The contributions discuss links between catalogues and textual sources providing new insights into the development of compendia between serialization standardization and diversity of local traditions Though its a novel corpus based approach this volume revolutionizes the current understanding of Mesopotamian medical texts and the healing disciplines of conjurer and physician The research presented here allows one to identify core text corpora for these disciplines as well as areas of exchange and borrowings between them
