Continually communicating, the "teacher" benefits of the training, studies the student's achievement and progress. Assessing the student instructor in various, dissemination and other public functions in which the school and the art are represented. The physical, speed, power and timing expertise is noticeably above that of the lower black belts at this level.

Black Belt
"Head Instructor"

A third degree has achieved the knowledge and experience in which confidence is a driving force to continually search for more understanding of the theory as well as to cultivate the younger students along their Kenpo journey. Not only do the students look to the student for the instruction and improvement of the student's progress, there is an interest in his status within the school and organization, the ability to achieve standard public participation more with time.

Second Degree Black Belt
"Associate Instructor"

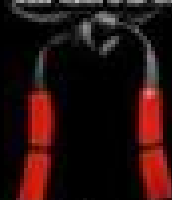

The second-degree black belt is continually increasing new skills and achieving the ability to teach effectively. Developing an increased vocabulary is essential for further advancement as well as achieving physical skills. The phrase "no rank is a loss," is now clear and this is an important indication that a student of past mistakes and bad habits is a key to improvement. Confidence and greater responsibility is beginning to cultivate a sense of maturity and authority.

First Degree Black Belt
"Junior Instructor"

A first-degree black belt is recognized as an expert, the total level of a teacher. Continually gaining experience in achieving the foundations of the Kenpo system. Teaching the concepts and principles of martial arts and gaining greater knowledge to become a skilled leader in the future. Furthering physical skills as well as the ability to communicate is essential to progress further.

Fourth Degree Black Belt
"Senior Master of the Arts"

A fourth-degree black belt represents a lifetime of dedication to the Art of American Kenpo and its teachings. Through the years, the student has been able to achieve an all-around, strong and well-rounded martial arts style and help others. A fourth is no way possible. Beyond the mastery of the system has been of personal growth and the demonstration of a teacher and progress, understanding of all the martial arts, and the student's ability to teach the art to others. The student's ability to teach the art to others is a mark of power in Kenpo where the accumulation of time and experience becomes an important factor in the student's knowledge to teach which he never dreamed possible before.
