The Other American Moderns ShiPu

Wang,2017-07-14 In The Other American Moderns ShiPu Wang analyzes the works of four early twentieth century American artists who engaged with the concept of Americanness Frank Matsura Eitar Ishigaki Hideo Noda and Miki Hayakawa In so doing he recasts notions of minority artists contributions to modernism and American culture Wang presents comparative studies of these four artists figurative works that feature Native Americans African Americans and other racial and ethnic minorities including Matsura and Susan Timento Pose at Studio ca 1912 The Bonus March 1932 Scottsboro Boys 1933 and Portrait of a Negro ca 1926 Rather than creating art that reflected Asian aesthetics Matsura Ishigaki Noda and Hayakawa deployed imagery of the Other by the Other as their means of exploring understanding and contesting conditions of diaspora and notions of what it meant to be American in an age of anti immigrant sentiment and legislation Based on a decade long excavation of previously unexamined collections in the United States and Japan The Other American Moderns is more than a rediscovery of forgotten minority artists it reconceives American modernism by illuminating these artists active role in the shaping of a multicultural and cosmopolitan culture This nuanced analysis of their deliberate engagement with the ideological complexities of American identity contributes a new vision to our understanding of non European identity in modernism and American art The National Museum of the American Indian Amy Lonetree,Amanda J. Cobb,2008-11-01 The first American national museum designed and run by indigenous peoples the Smithsonian Institution s National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC opened in 2004 It represents both the United States as a singular nation and the myriad indigenous nations within its borders Constructed with materials closely connected to Native communities across the continent the museum contains more than 800 000 objects and three permanent galleries and routinely holds workshops and seminar series This first comprehensive look at the National Museum of the American Indian encompasses a variety of perspectives including those of Natives and non Natives museum employees and outside scholars across disciplines such as cultural studies and criticism art history history museum studies anthropology ethnic studies and Native American studies The contributors engage in critical dialogues about key aspects of the museum s origin exhibits significance and the relationship between Native Americans and other related museums America's England Christopher Hanlon,2013-04-04 This book examines the maneuvers through which U S partisans encoded the turmoil of antebellum America in terms of English affiliation Demonstrating that English genealogies geographies and economics encoded the sectional crisis for southern and northern Americans it locates sectionalism in a broader Atlantic context of cultural imagination and literary production Re-framing the Transnational Turn in American Studies Winfried Fluck,Donald E. Pease,John Carlos Rowe,2011 What is the state of American studies in the twenty first century Moved to Tears Rebecca Bedell,2018-11-13 In this volume Bedell examines received ideas about sentimental art Countering its association with trite and saccharine Victorian kitsch she argues that major American artists from John Trumbull and Charles Willson Peale in the eighteenth century and Asher Durand and Winslow Homer in the nineteenth to Henry Ossawa Tanner and Frank Lloyd Wright in the early twentieth produced what was understood in their time as sentimental art art intended to develop empathetic bonds and to express or elicit social affections including sympathy compassion nostalgia and patriotism William Harnett's

Iskin,2025-01-28 The first comprehensive study of Cassatt s life work and legacy through the prism of a transatlantic framework This book re envisions Mary Cassatt in the context of her transatlantic network friendships exhibitions politics and legacy Rather than defining her as either an American artist or a French impressionist author Ruth E Iskin argues that we can best understand Cassatt through the complexity of her multiple identifications as an American patriot a committed French impressionist and a suffragist Contextualizing Cassatt s feminist outlook within the intense pro and anti suffrage debates in the United States Iskin shows how these impacted her artistic representations of motherhood fatherhood and older women Mary Cassatt between Paris and New York also argues for the historical importance of her work as an advisor to American collectors and demonstrates the role of museums in shaping her legacy highlighting the combined impact of gender national and transnational dynamics

Thomas Eakins and the Cultures of Modernity Alan C. Braddock,2009-03-31 Thomas Eakins and the Cultures of Modernity is the first book to situate Philadelphia s greatest realist painter in relation to the historical discourse of cultural difference In this study Alan C Braddock reveals that modern anthropological perceptions of culture which many art historians attribute to Eakins did not become current until after the artist s death in 1916 Braddock finds in the work of Thomas Eakins a lifelong engagement with aesthetic and social currents that extended well beyond his native city of Philadelphia indicating the persistence of a worldly sensibility long after he had concluded his formative studies in Europe during the 1860s Braddock shows how Eakins developed a localized cosmopolitanism all his own based in Philadelphia but tapped into a global field of visual production Jacket Remaking Race and History RenŽe Ater,Meta Warrick

Fuller,2011-11-22 The George Gund Foundation imprint in African American studies Global Modern Art Margaret A. Richardson,2025-08-29 This accessible foundational volume explores how modern art developed around the world by comparing contexts and artistic production in Europe the Americas Asia and Africa from the 1850s through the 1960s To provide a broader more comprehensive view of modern art both chronological and thematic approaches will be used and selections from all regions of the world will be included from Africa Asia the Americas as well as Europe Each section begins with an overview of the region leading into more detailed case studies of specific countries historical contexts including their cultural and aesthetic values and the ways in which cultures have interacted with regional neighbors and outside forces Examples of specific artists and groups will be discussed for each country and will illuminate themes that illustrate cultural distinctions and connect to broader modern trends traced throughout the text This book will be of interest to students and
