Taking Religion Seriously Across the Curriculum Warren A. Nord, Charles C. Haynes, 1998 The authors chart a middle course in our war over religion and public education one that builds on a developing national consensus among educational and religious leaders While it is not proper for schools to practice religion or proselytize neither is it permissible to make them religion free zones Schools do not take religion seriously as the authors review of textbooks and the new national content standards makes clear In Part One they outline the civic constitutional and educational frameworks that should shape the treatment of religion in the curriculum and classroom In Part Two they explore major issues relating to religion in different domains of the curriculum in elementary education and in middle and high school courses in history civics economics literature and the sciences They also discuss Bible courses and world religions courses and explore the relationship of religion to moral education and sex education

A Tale of Two Narratives Grace Wermenbol, 2021-05-27 Explores the transmission and perpetuation of conflict narratives in Israeli Jewish and Palestinian society since the signing of the Oslo Accords

Textbook Reds John Rodden, 2010-11-01 Textbook Reds is a work in the sociology of education and literary sociology and history Rodden shows that the deepest roots of German Democratic Republic society were indeed located in the institution that molded the youth of its citizens

The Conscious Teacher Deborah Nichols Poulos, 2020-01-13 The Conscious Teacher is about all kinds of strategies and techniques educators might employ to become more effective teachers In an accessible conversational style Deborah Nichols Poulos presents unique approaches to teaching that will inspire new and veteran teachers alike She begins with her personal story of not being able to read all through elementary school Her early failures convinced her she was dumb At first she struggled but when she still failed she adopted an avoidance strategy that served her well until junior high An experience in the seventh grade flipped a switch and started her on a journey to becoming an outstanding student and later to applying the lessons she learned as a child to her own teaching What makes The Conscious Teacher unique are the inspirational lessons that are unlike what most teachers get in their teacher education courses or student teaching Ms Nichols Poulos points out for example that from the very first day it is important that students learn they will be treated with dignity and respect no matter what And especially helpful are the steps Ms Nichols Poulos employs to set up a behavior

management plan that works She explains the strategic steps she takes before school starts how essential it is to get to know each student before they walk into class on that first day She also illustrates how setting up classroom routines helps students know what to expect and how to make the best use of every minute And she emphasizes the importance of the parent student teacher team and includes many examples of how to communicate with and involve parents even those who may be difficult Foundational to her program are reading and writing Among other things she lays out the steps for students even as early as fourth grade to write five paragraph essays and their own student authored books and to research and write reports that include bibliographies When she differentiated curriculum to support all students needs she found their learning accelerated All teachers will appreciate her ideas about how to teach the basics of math as well as advanced math concepts And her ideas for teaching the arts are inspirational as she describes in detail how her fourth graders performed Shakespeare s Hamlet Macbeth King Lear Julius Caesar and A Midsummer Night s Dream She also shows how to integrate social studies with literature and writing Her experiences taught her that young students are much more capable than many people realize The Conscious Teacher is an indispensable guide for all new teachers Many of the ideas Ms Nichols Poulos provides will also be an eye opener for parents and experienced teachers as well The Conscious Teacher is simply a must have for anyone truly interested in giving young children a positive and solid foundation for their later schooling

Boehm,1998-07 Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou,Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003 ,2003 Faith and Politics in South Asia
Astha Chadha,2024-11-18 This book explores the role of faith and politics in shaping the international relations of South Asia Adopting a neo classical realist framework and a discourse historical approach to analyze how religious actors construct their political identities and interests through the interpretation of sacred texts or exegesis the book makes several key contributions to the field of international relations It introduces the concept of exegesis as a novel analytical tool to understand the role of religion in world politics The book argues that exegesis is not only a theological exercise but also a political one as it shapes the worldviews values norms and interests of religious actors The author applies exegesis to three case studies of South Asia the partition of India and Pakistan the rise of Hindu nationalism in India and the emergence of Islamic radicalism in Pakistan and resurging signs of the same in Bangladesh The research then challenges the conventional assumptions of IR such as the secularization thesis the clash of civilizations and the rational actor model by showing how religious actors are not monolithic homogeneous or irrational but rather diverse heterogeneous and strategic The book offers a nuanced and comprehensive understanding of the role of religion in world politics especially in the context of South Asia Highlighting the diversity and complexity of the religious landscape in South Asia which is home to various faiths sects movements and ideologies this book will be of interest to academics studying global politics international relations Asian Studies and studies on religion and foreign policy

Social Studies and Diversity Education Elizabeth E. Heilman,Ramona Fruja Amthor,Matthew T. Missias,2010 The preparation of social studies teachers is crucial not only to the project of good education but even more broadly to the cultivation of a healthy democracy and the growth of a nation e tm s citizens This one of a kind resource features ideas from over 100 of the field s most thoughtful teacher educators reflecting on their best practices and offering specific strategies through which future teachers can learn to teach thus illuminating the careful planning and deep thinking that go into the preparation of the social studies teachers While concentrating on daily teaching realities such as lesson planning and meeting national state or provincial standards each contributor also wrestles with the most important current issues on educating teachers for today e tm s increasingly diverse complex and global society Features of this unique teaching resource include Volume sections that are arranged by both disciplinary organization and approach or activity Thoughtful introductory section essays that conceptualize each theme providing a conscientious theoretical overview and analysis of each individual section Rich and concrete examples of best practice from some of the field s most diverse and highly regarded scholars and teacher educators An index that identifies the appropriate teaching level and teacher education context and links the strategies and ideas that are presented in the essay to the relevant INTASC and NCSS standards for quick reference in classroom planning as well as institutional development and implementation A much needed addition to the field this comprehensive volume will be of value to any teacher interested in social studies or diversity education across age groups and educational contexts Biotechnology Randolph R.

Cornelius,1993-12 Focuses on how biotechnology helps Saskatchewan produce better hardier plants and animals how it improves growing conditions for crops and how it improves animal and health care There are two levels of activities some for grades 7 to 9 while others are for students in grades 10 11 and 12 Myths and Mythical Spaces Claudia

Lichnofsky,Enriketa Pandelejmoni,Darko Stojanov,2017-12-04 This volume addresses textbooks written in the Albanian language and in use in Albania Kosovo Macedonia and Serbia Political myths and mythical spaces play a key role in shaping processes of identity building concepts of self and other and ideas pertaining to the location of the self and nation within a post conflict context The Albanian case is particularly interesting because the majority of Albanians live outside the borders of Albania despite the existence of the nation state which gives rise to fascinating complexities regarding the shaping of national identities and myths surrounding concepts of self and other What textbooks teach is always of political interest as they represent society s intentions for its next generation This renders identity building processes via textbooks in this context a particularly fascinating topic for research here examined through the lens of myths and mythical spaces
