Camaro Mike Mueller, 2017-01-02 Camaro Fifty Years of Chevy Performance chronicles the first fifty years of Chevrolet's iconic Camaro through fascinating photography history and commentary about this legendary pony car The early 1960s saw American auto manufacturers desperately trying to sell cars to the emerging baby boom market Chevrolet attained some success with its sporty Corvair Monza Ford responded first with a sportier Falcon then with its grand slam home run pony car the Mustang At first Chevrolet hesitated to abandon the technologically advanced Corvair but when it finally entered the pony car market in 1967 its new Camaro instantly became one of the most iconic cars of the classic muscle car era When muscle cars went dormant for a generation it was once again the classic pony cars that jump started American performance The battle that raged between Camaro and Mustang in the 1980s rejuvenated the US auto industry's interest in high performance muscle cars The Camaro lost its way in the 1990s with Chevrolet pursuing technological advances and Ford pursuing classic American muscle As was the case in the 1960s Ford's muscular pony car trounced Chevrolet's technologically advanced sporty car in the race that mattered most showroom sales The Mustang thrived while the Camaro left the scene Fortunately that departure was only temporary Chevrolet introduced a twenty first century Camaro in 2010 and it has become one of Chevrolet s most popular models With stunning photography from author Mike Mueller and never before seen archival photography from partner General Motors Camaro Fifty Years of Chevy Performance chronicles the Camaro s rich history from the early attempts to reach the youth market in the 1960s through the potent and turbulent years of the classic muscle car era the resurgence of muscle in the 1980s the sad decline of the 1990s and the triumphant rebirth of the new car in this new millennium

1969 Chevrolet Camaro SS Bobby Kimbrough,2017-04-17 In 1969 the Camaro with the SS package took Chevy Camaro performance and styling to another level First the Camaro carried updated sheet metal for an aggressive and eye catching appearance and the ultra high performance 427 big block engines were available for the first time As history proved 1969 was the pinnacle of performance and styling for the first generation Chevy Camaro Author and muscle car expert Robert Kimbrough provides a comprehensive examination of the all time classic 1969 Camaro SS in Volume No 4 of CarTech s In Detail series He delves into the design manufacturing and equipment of Chevrolet s premier pony car For the first time in its history the 1969 Camaro SS had a full slate of high performance small blocks as well as big blocks to conquer the competition on the street and track The engines included the 350 375 hp 396 and 425 hp COPO 427 Camaros The Camaro SS made such an impression that it became the Indy 500 Pace Car once again in 1969 All In Detail Series books include an introduction and historical overview an explanation of the design and concepts involved in creating the car a look at marketing and promotion and an in depth study of all hardware and available options as well as an examination of where the car is on the market today Also included is an appendix of paint and option codes VIN and build tag decoders as well as production numbers

COPO Camaro, Chevelle & Nova Matt Avery,2018-09-14 The COPO Camaros Chevelles and Novas of the 1960s and early 1970s were the ultimate high performance GM muscle cars While few knew about this back channel program at the time it is now recognized as the origin of GM s top muscle cars Dedicated Chevy racers and car owners were determined to compete head to head with Mopar and Ford at the racetrack and on the street But in order to do so they needed to circumvent the corporate ban on racing and resolve the restriction of 400 ci engines in intermediate vehicles Don Yenko and some other creative individuals recognized the loophole in the COPO Central Office Production Order system at General Motors The COPO program was designated for fleet vehicles such as taxicabs but at the peak of the muscle car wars it was used to build the ultimate high performance Chevy muscle cars Some horrific on track accidents compelled General Motors to drop out of racing yet GM did not want to allow Chrysler and Ford to steal the glory on Sundays while they stood on the sidelines As a result GM inconspicuously ran the Chevy racing and high performance program through back channels and COPO was integral part of the program Don Yenko became the COPO muscle car program chief architect and champion He ordered the Corvair through the COPO program and created the Corvair Stinger to mount a SCCA road race campaign

From these humble beginnings the road map for creating the ultimate Camaros Chevelles and Novas was established. Factory Camaro V 8s came equipped with the 350 small block or 396 big block which had to compete with the Mustang Cobra Jets and Mopar Wedge and Hemi cars. In response, building the big block Camaro through the COPO program was devised. At the factory, Camaros were fitted with the 396 engines and shipped to dealers where the 427s were installed in the cars. From 1967 to 1969, the factory and dealers installed eight different 427 engines, including the all-aluminum ZL1 427. Later on, others used the road map to build COPO Novas and Chevelles to similar spec with similar results. The COPO performance car program did not end with these muscle cars. Yenko even ordered several hundred Vegas through the COPO program so they could be fitted with turbochargers and raced in SCCA competition. Chevy muscle car aficionado and author Matt Avery retraces the history of the COPO program and the creation of these premier muscle cars. He has scoured archives and tracked down owners and personnel involved in the program to deliver a comprehensive story and complete guide to the COPO cars. The COPO muscle car and racing program produced a storied and remarkable journey, and author Matt Avery captures all these facets in this entertaining and revealing history.
