

ANIMAL FARM

ACT I - THE REVOLUTION

Narrator: In England, there once can be found a farm called Manor Farm, owned by an irresponsible farmer named Mr. Jones, who had not much concern for his poor farm animals.

(Animals sorrowfully doing work in the farm)

Narrator: One evening, when Mr. Jones had retreated for the day, Old Major, the oldest and wisest of the animals, called for a meeting to announce something important.

Old Major: Comrades, so few of us will ever come to know the blessing of old age as I have. You, Porkers, don't you know that in your prime all that awaits you is the chopping board?! You, Hens, how many of your eggs did not even have the chance to hatch! You, horses, when your youth is gone and your muscles fail, what then? Our lives are short and miserable but should this always be the case? Is England so poor that we need to live like this? Nay! The lands of England which we toil are rich but the humans take everything from us! Yes, the humans are the root of all our misery! In my youth, there was a song that is now sadly forgotten. I myself had once forgotten it, too, but the words recently came back to me in a dream. The song is called Beasts of England... (clears throat and sings)

Beasts of England, Beasts of Ireland
Beasts of every land and clime
Hearken to my joyful tidings
Of the golden future time.

(Animals join Old Major in singing Beasts of England)

Soon or late the date is coming,
Tyrant Man shall o'erthrown
And the fruitful fields of England
Shall be trod by beasts alone

Mr. Jones: (shoots) Stupid animals!

(Animals quickly flee from the meeting.)

Narrator: The following day, to everyone's grief, Old Major was discovered lifeless in his stall.

Snowball: Comrades, what better way is there to remember Old Major than to realize his dream of an England where animals are free and equal, an England not ruled by men but by us, animals! We, pigs, call this the principle of ANIMALISM! We must rise and fight for what is ours!

Childhood on the Farm Pamela Riney-Kehrberg, 2023-01-13 As the United States transformed itself from an agricultural to an industrial nation thousands of young people left farm homes for life in the big city But even by 1920 the nation's heartland remained predominantly rural and most children in the region were still raised on farms Pamela Riney Kehrberg retells their stories offering glimpses both nostalgic and realistic of a bygone era As Riney Kehrberg shows the experiences of most farm children continued to reflect the traditions of family life and labor albeit in an age when middle class urban Americans were beginning to redefine childhood as a time reserved for education and play She draws upon a wealth of primary sources not only memoirs and diaries but also census data to create a vivid portrait of midwestern farm childhood from the early post Civil War period through the Progressive Era growing pains of industrialization Those personal accounts resurrect the essential experience of children's work play education family relations and coming of age from their own perspectives Steering a middle path between the myth of wholesome farm life and the reality of work that was often extremely dangerous Riney Kehrberg shows both the best and the worst that a rural upbringing had to offer midwestern youth a time before mechanization forever changed the rural scene and radio broke the spell of isolation Down on the farm truancy was not uncommon and chores were shared across genders Yet farm children managed to indulge in inventive play much of it homemade to supplement store bought toys and to get through the long spells between circuses Filled with insightful personal stories and graced with dozens of highly evocative period photos Childhood on the Farm is the only general history of midwestern farm children to use narratives written by the children themselves giving a fresh voice to these forgotten years There was a way of life that was disappearing even as they lived it and this book offers new insight into why even if many rural youngsters became urban and suburban adults they always maintained some affection for the farm A
