The Closing of the Gates Rabbi Lawrence A. Hoffman, PhD, 2018-05-29 Nilah the closing of the gates is in many ways the most anticipated worship service in the entire Jewish calendar Coming at the end of the 24 hour fast that characterizes Yom Kippur The Day of Atonement it symbolizes the days of old when the gates of the ancient Temple closed at last and with them the last chance for prayers of atonement and reconciliation with God and with others Nowadays the synagogue service that replaced the Temple cult marks the occasion with heightened fervor the only time all year when the gates of the ark that houses the Torah scroll remain open throughout the service telltale melodies accompany the occasion a final blast of the shofar the ram s horn symbolizes the end of the fast and the new beginning that follows special prayers celebrate the human capacity to create a life that matters beyond our own mortality and the presence of God who reaches out a hand to invite us into the new Jewish year that Nilah s final shofar blast inaugurates All of this is the topic for volume eight in Prayers of Awe the series devoted to exploring the depth of the Jewish High Holy Days As with prior volumes this one too comes with introductory essays on the history theology and deeper meaning behind the prayer experience It then assembles some 40 short and accessible essays designed to unlock the mystery and depth of the occasion Authors come from all walks of life clergy and laypeople scholars and artists men and women across the generations and from seven countries Canada Australia Germany France Israel the UK and USA What music appreciation is to classical music this series on prayer is to Jewish worship This volume in particular explores Judaism s timeless message of divine purpose and the ongoing search for meaning in a world of human frailty but also promise

Encountering God Rabbi Lawrence A. Hoffman, PhD, 2016-07-26 It is time to recover rabbinic lessons of late antiquity God is a God of grace and love human beings can aspire to goodness and promise on Yom Kippur the two of them meet God s love energizes human potential and the world is reborn with hope restored The God of Jewish tradition is far from the strict God of justice commonly understood to be the God of the Hebrew Bible God s self introduction to Moses atop Mount Sinai does indeed conclude with the image of punishment throughout the generations but begins with God merciful and gracious the imagery that finds its way into rabbinic liturgy and lore as solely the God of grace and compassion pardon and love To arrive at this selective perception of biblical tradition the Rabbis of the Talmud deliberately misread the biblical text and then fashioned a myth of God who dresses up as a leader of prayer and promises pardon if Israel will only repeat these merciful attributes as part of its prayer ritual on that day Ever since the Thirteen Attributes as the list comes to be known becomes central to Jewish prayer accompanying the liturgy for holidays generally and framing the opening and closing services of the holiest day in the Jewish year Yom Kippur the Day of Judgment itself In this seventh volume in the Prayers of Awe Series contributors men and women rabbis and laypeople scholars and artists from across the spectrum of Jewish life and representing the US Israel the UK Germany France Canada and Australia chart the importance of these Thirteen Attributes of God They explore the kind of God Jews meet in prayer and the consequent self reflection about the human condition that Judaism recommends on the basis of its idealized image of God as above all merciful and gracious
