Young people in a digitalised world Council of Europe, 2018-06-18 Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges The Perspectives on youth series aims to function as a forum for information discussion reflection and dialogue on European developments in the field of youth policy youth research and youth work This issue is linked with the Symposium on Youth Participation in a Digitalised World organised by the partnership between the European Commission and the Council of Europe in the field of youth

Literary Awards Julian

Harrington, AI, 2025-05-06 Literary Awards examines the significant role of international literary prizes as cultural gatekeepers influencing global literary trends and shaping perceptions of good literature. These awards including the Nobel Prize in Literature, the Booker Prize, and the Prix Goncourt often dictate the flow of cultural capital and impact literary canons. The book reveals how factors beyond pure artistic merit such as political considerations and market forces affect these accolades. Did you know that these awards can act as tools of cultural diplomacy influencing international relations through literature? The book offers a historical overview tracing the evolution of literary prizes from national systems to global phenomena. It analyzes how post colonialism, globalization, and the rise of a global literary market have shaped these awards. By examining specific case studies and incorporating interviews with authors and publishers, Literary Awards argues that these prizes while powerful are not neutral arbiters of literary quality. The book progresses from introducing key concepts like cultural capital to analyzing specific awards and discussing ethical implications, providing a comprehensive analysis of the literary awards landscape.
