Jacob D.

Myers, 2017-10-18 The real question for homiletics in our increasingly postmodern post Christian contexts is not how we are going to prevent preaching from dying but how we are going to help it die a good death Preaching was not made to live At most preaching is a witness a sign a crimson X marking a demolition site The church has developed sophisticated technologies in modernity to give preaching the semblance of life belying the truth preaching was born under a death sentence It was born to die Only when preaching embraces its own death is it able to live This book then is a bold homiletical manifesto against preaching in support of preaching and beyond preaching to the entire worship experience It troubles modern homiletical theologies in light of the trouble always already at work within preaching Hereby it supports a way of preaching and teaching preaching that moves counter to the wisdom of this world It aims to joins in God's self revealed
