Issues in Prayer Book Revision Robert W. Prichard, 2018-09-17 Essays from academics across a spectrum of perspectives The Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music sought input from multiple sources in order to better understand the charge of the General Convention of 2015 suggesting that it present a plan for the revision of the Book of Common Prayer to the 2018 Convention While the individual chapters of this volume raise a variety of differing issues they share a common assumption that one of the sources of information for the Standing Commission and the Church in its deliberations ought to be the community of academically trained liturgical scholars The hope of this volume is to open a conversation across the church that will continue in the future

Anglican Confirmation 1820-1945 Phillip Tovey, 2024-06-03 This book focuses on Anglican Confirmation in theology liturgy and practice from 1820 to 1945 This was a period of great change in the ways Anglicans approached Confirmation

The Tractarian movement transformed the Communion and its ideas were carried overseas with the missionary movement. The study examines the development of a two stage theology and its reception. It analyses the wave of liturgical revision expressed in England in the 1928 Prayer Book. It explores the episcopal changes in practice from the eighteenth century paradigm to a new way of confirming. The revolution of the time has left a legacy that still informs practice while doubts about theology and its liturgical application have left an existential crisis. The author reflects on how the current situation in various provinces has its roots in this period and the diffusion of ideas in the Communion. The book offers a fresh systematic examination of the neglected ecclesial practice of Confirmation providing a more holistic view and clarifying developments to help us better understand the present. It will be of particular interest to scholars of Christian theology, liturgy, ecclesiology and church history.
