Literacy Hour Guy Merchant, Huw Thomas, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2000 Over the last 30 years growth in the popularity and provision of books for children has been remarkable The quality and inventiveness of children's authors and illustrators have led some to think of the picture book as a new art form This book is a celebration of some of this work and it concentrates on the potential that picture books have for the teaching and learning of literacy The aim of this book is to encourage colleagues to take a closer look at some of their favourite picture books and to see how they can be used as a starting point for enjoyable and challenging literacy work in primary classrooms Believing that teachers do not need to rely on schemes to structure their English curriculum and with this in mind this book includes 24 popular titles that have been identified in terms of their potential for delivering exciting text sentence and word level work Written to be used as a resource and anticipate that many readers will be most interested the commentaries on the picture books contained in Chapters 3 7 and the accompanying photocopiable activity sheets Resources in Education, 2000-04 Instructor's Course Outline, 1944 Syllabus for military instructors teaching high school agriculture curricula in the U S Army education program Training for Catastrophe Lindsay Thomas, 2021-03-16 A timely politically savvy examination of how impossible disasters shape the very real possibilities of our world Why would the normally buttoned down national security state imagine lurid future scenarios like a zombie apocalypse In Training for Catastrophe author Lindsay Thomas shows how our security regime reimagines plausibility to focus on unlikely and even unreal events rather than probable ones With an in depth focus on preparedness a pivotal emergent national security paradigm since 9 11 she explores how fiction shapes national security Thomas finds fiction at work in unexpected settings from policy documents and workplace training manuals to comics and video games Through these texts as well as plenty of science fiction she examines the philosophy of preparedness interrogating the roots of why it asks us to treat explicitly fictional events as real Thomas connects this philosophical underpinning to how preparedness plays out in contemporary politics emphasizing how it uses aesthetic elements like realism genre character and plot to train people both to regard some disasters as normal and to ignore others Training for Catastrophe makes an important case for how these documents elicit consent and compliance Thomas draws from a huge archive of texts including a Centers for Disease Control comic about a zombie apocalypse the work of Audre Lorde and the political thrillers of former national security advisor Richard Clarke to ask difficult questions about the uses and values of fiction A major statement on how national security intrudes into questions of art and life Training for Catastrophe is a timely intervention into how we confront disasters The Ohio Teacher Genry Graham Williams,1909
