Multispace Owen Hopkins, 2023-10-30 Guest edited by Owen Hopkins Multispace exists at the intersection of the physical and digital and in the blurring of their previously clear dividing lines Multispace is not a single space but a hybrid space where in effect we occupy multiple spaces simultaneously We enter it on a Zoom call when we are in our office and in a meeting with 20 people when we are cycling down a country lane whilst racing against thousands of others who also use the Strava app when we are watching a TV show while live tweeting or perhaps most literally when wandering around the local park looking for creatures that only appear on a smartphone screen A fundamental question of this AD is why the phenomena that multispace describes are of concern to architects The answer is that multispace points to a situation that is at root an architectural one Offering both a collective and highly personalised experience static and dynamically customisable and above all at the same time public and private multispace lies at the centre of a set of tensions concerns and preoccupations at the core of our conception of architecture as theory and practice It is the messy space between with rough and uneven edges that are constantly shifting Contributors Aleksandra Belitskaja Alice Bucknell Jesse Damiani Wendy Fok Andrew Kovacs Lara Lesmes and Fredrik Hellberg Micaela Mantegna Holly Nielsen Giacomo Pala Paula Strunden Lucia Tahan and Francesca Torello and Joshua Bard Featured architects and artists iheartblob Ibiye Campis Office Kovacs Space Popular and Liam Young International Financial Statistics, February 2018 International Monetary Fund.
