2014 Tourism Pat Memorandum:

Strategic Environmental Assessment and Urban Planning Giovanni Campeol, 2020-07-06 This volume gathers a selection of research contributions on Strategic Environmental Assessment SEA including theoretical and methodological studies and real world case studies It sheds new light on the respective steps in the procedure defined in the SEA Directive from theoretical and operational standpoints intended to enhance the sustainability of plans and programmes adopted by local regional and national authorities Improving the legitimacy and transparency of decision making in the field of environmental management was one of the goals that led the European Commission EU to adopt Directive 2001 42 EC on the assessment of environmental programmes effects This book provides a multidisciplinary approach to SEA and addresses the demand for policies and strategies to strengthen resilience through concrete measures to reduce energy consumption mitigate pollution promote social inclusion and create urban identity Innovation and Creativity in Tourism, Business and Social Sciences Vicky Katsoni, Carlos Costa, 2025-06-03 This book is the first volume of the proceedings of the 11th International Conference of the International Association of Cultural and Digital Tourism IACuDiT Focusing on Innovation and Creativity in Tourism Business and Social Sciences the conference was held from September 3 to 5 2024 in Naxos Greece The book showcases the latest research on tourism business technology and the social sciences and presents a critical academic discourse on ICT adoption in the social sciences regional development sustainability and tourism experience smart and sustainable practices innovations in museum interpretation and collections management emerging and disruptive technologies gaming gamification and augmented reality and other topical aspects in business and the social sciences The book discusses these digital transformation processes from various standpoints including its effect on the social sciences combined with specific forms of tourism The impact of digitalization encourages the emergence of new digital products and services based on the principle of flexibility The book focuses on the knowledge economy and the smart destinations concepts and highlights new modes of tourism management and development while further chapters address emerging technologies such as the Internet of Things AI big data and robotics in a range of tourism practices

Thanatourism and Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthi Tzanelli, 2016-04-14 In today's world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy's tourist sector Indeed there is fear that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity's well being These risks include migration as an infectious disease alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities cyborg rebellion as the fear of post colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory tourism and travel theory film studies and aesthetics globalisation studies race labour and migration

Performing Flight Scott Magelssen, 2020-01-01 Performing Flight sheds new light on moments in the history of US aviation and spaceflight through the lens of performance studies From pioneering aviator Bessie Coleman to the emerging industry of space tourism performance has consistently shaped public perception of the enterprise of flight and has guaranteed its success as a mode of entertainment travel research and warfare The book reveals fundamental connections between performance and human aviation and space travel over the past 100 years beginning with the early aerial entertainers known as barnstormers named after itinerant 19th century theater troupes to the performative history of the Enola Gay and its pilot Paul Tibbets who dropped the bomb on Hiroshima thus ushering in the atomic age The book also explores the phenomenon of the pilot voice the creation of the American Astronaut on whose performative success the Cold War the Space Race and funding of the US Space Program all depended and the performative strategies employed to cement notions of space tourism as both manifest destiny and an escape route from a failed planet A final chapter addresses the four hijacked flights of 9 11 and their representations in discourse and in memorials Performing Flight effectively and imaginatively demonstrates the ways in which performance and flight in the United States have been inextricably linked for more than a century

World War I in Irish Art and Literature Karen Hannel, 2022-11-16 Focusing on Ireland's literary and artistic response to World War I this book explores works from a range of perspectives that intervened in Irish political and cultural discourse Works such as Patrick MacGill's novel The Amateur Army 1915 John Lavery's Daylight Raid from my Studio 1917 and Margaret Barrington's My Cousin Justin 1939 show how the war was fully examined by Irish authors but was disregarded with the beginning of World War II Diverse voices challenged prevailing notions of Irish national identity from the bourgeois cosmopolitanism of Tom Kettle to the working class internationalism of Patrick MacGill to Pamela Hinkson's cynicism about imperial patriarchy

The Gateway to the Pacific Meredith Oda, 2019-01-03 In the decades following World War II municipal leaders and ordinary citizens embraced San Francisco's identity as the Gateway to the Pacific using it to reimagine and rebuild the city. The city became a cosmopolitan center on account of its newfound celebration of its Japanese and other Asian American residents, its economy linked with Asia, and its favorable location for transpacific partnerships. The most conspicuous testament to San Francisco's postwar transpacific connections is the Japanese Cultural and Trade Center in the city's redeveloped Japanese American enclave. Focusing on the development of the Center, Meredith Oda shows how this multilayered story was embedded within a larger story of the changing institutions and ideas that were shaping the city. During these formative decades, Oda argues, San Francisco's relations with and ideas about Japan were being forged within the intimate local sites of civic and community life. This shift took many forms, including changes in city leadership, new municipal institutions, and especially transformations in the built environment. Newly friendly relations between Japan and the United States also meant that Japanese Americans found fresh, if highly constrained, job and community prospects, just as the city's African Americans struggled against rising barriers. San Francisco's story is an inherently local one, but it also a broader story of a city collectively, if not cooperatively, reimaging its place in a global economy.

Just Past? Raz Kletter, 2014-12-05 The land of Israel is rich in history and material culture and has long been the location of extensive archaeological excavation. Just Past examines the origins of Israeli archaeology in the 1950s and 1960s. Drawing on previously unpublished documentary material, the study offers a history of intriguing finds, failures, and dreams. Just Past covers a range of topics from the 1948 war to the Israel Department of Antiquities and Museums' issues of foreign aid and the political circumstances behind the decision to start excavations at Masada. Highlighting the centrality of politics to archaeology in Israel/Palestine, Just Past presents an assessment of the origins of Israeli archaeology, which will be invaluable to students and scholars of history and archaeology.
