More attention to management issues such as innovation and the spatial consequences for tourism and leisure development. New case studies and examples to showcase real life issues from both developed and developing countries especially the US China and South Africa. Completely revised and redeveloped to accommodate new user friendly features case studies insights summary points and learning objectives. Written by leading academics this is essential reading for all tourism geography leisure and recreation students.

Heritage Tourism Destinations Maria D Alvarez, Atila Yuksel, Frank Go, 2016-05-27 Heritage tourism is tied to myth making and stories creative content that can be shared stored combined and manipulated but that depends on a unique cultural or natural history. A significant section of the wider phenomenon that is cultural tourism heritage tourism is a demand driven industry that continues to be a subject of heated debate in academic circles. Beginning with an overview of the subject this book considers the conservation and revitalization of heritage destinations as well as the role local communities have in supporting an attraction. It then discusses product development and communication around the world using new techniques such as social media and examples from food tourism and sporting events before a final section reviews the planning and institutionalisation of heritage spaces. A timely conclusion subsequently considers the implications of developments such as globalisation technological improvement and climate change upon these unique destinations. A valuable addition to the literature this book is the first to bridge the gap between theory and practice including the latest research and international case studies for researchers and practitioners in tourism and destination management.
