

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Sustainable Development Goals and Institutions of Higher Education

Godwell Nhamo, Vuyo Mjimba, 2019-09-14 This volume brings together both theoretical and case study based contributions to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in Institutions of Higher Education (IHE) presenting an impactful combination of authors from both developing and developed countries. While most current publications addressing the SDGs and education focus on sustainable development in general and specific topics such as climate change or energy, this book attempts to accelerate the localisation of the SDGs by presenting opportunities and innovations offered in various universities and campuses regarding SDGs localisation. The book seeks to provide an important contribution to the global dialogue on IHE and the SDGs and will be of interest to academics and researchers engaged in the SDGs and education as well as government agencies and other interested stakeholders. The book focuses on curriculum and learning matters, research and development as well as community engagement. Case studies detail the integration of SDGs in academic and professional development, new approaches to implementing sustainability science instruction, improvements in teaching practices to enhance teacher competence and responsible management education. Additional focus is placed on the alignment of the SDGs in higher education with the other goals, emphasizing technological innovation for improved human health and environmental management and climate change policies and action plans. Interdisciplinary solutions for pressing environmental problems are also provided, making sure that no one is left behind in realising these global development goals.

Hope for a Good Life Andreas M. Krafft, Pasqualina Perrig-Chiello, Andreas M. Walker, 2018-05-02

This volume addresses the convincing belief that hope is an existential need and resource for living a good life, not only when all is going well but especially in difficult times. The findings reported in this volume result from the annual survey of the Hope Barometer Research Program, collected during 7 years and conducted in several countries. Structured in three parts, the first one provides the reader with a general introduction into the topic of hope, the theoretical and methodological foundations, and major general results of the Hope Barometer. Part two presents specific topics related to the levels and variations of hope.

across different population groups and the relationship of hope with several measures of well being Further part three focuses on comparisons of elements and levels of hope across cultures discussing methods and techniques to improve hope and thus increase overall well being Industrialization and Assimilation Elliott D. Green,2022-12-22 Industrialization and Assimilation examines the process of ethnic identity change in a broad historical context Green explains how and why ethnicity changes across time showing that by altering the basis of economic production from land to labour and removing people from the idiosyncrasy of rural life industrialization makes societies more ethnically homogenous More specifically the author argues that industrialization lowers the relative value of rural land leading people to identify less with narrow rural identities in favour of broader identities that can aid them in navigating the formal urban economy Using large scale datasets that span the globe as well as detailed case studies ranging from mid twentieth century Turkey to contemporary Botswana Somalia and Uganda as well as evidence from Native Americans in the United States and the Māori in New Zealand Industrialization and Assimilation provides a new framework to understand the origins of modern ethnic identities Arabic in Context ,2017-06-06 The writing of Arabic's linguistic history is by definition an interdisciplinary effort the result of collaboration between historical linguists epigraphists dialectologists and historians The present volume seeks to catalyse a dialogue between scholars in various fields who are interested in Arabic's past and to illustrate how much there is to be gained by looking beyond the traditional sources and methods It contains 15 innovative studies ranging from pre Islamic epigraphy to the modern spoken dialect and from comparative Semitics to Middle Arabic The combination of these perspectives hopes to stand as an important methodological intervention encouraging a shift in the way Arabic's linguistic history is written with novel causes and have been a consistent selection pressure over the course of evolution human and nonhuman Cognitive scientists have long acknowledged the importance of animacy investigating it as a perceptual phenomenon as a component of language a natural category a demand on attention a dimension of neurological organization and more recently as an important factor in memory Although animacy has been a dimension of interest in cognitive science for quite some time cognitive scientists from different subdisciplines interested in animacy e g perception attention language and memory rarely talk with one another to synthesize findings across subfields A major goal of this research topic is to solicit articles from across cognitive science in a broad sense that investigate the role that animacy plays in cognition in the hopes that authors and readers may begin to see the bigger picture regarding how animacy influences the mind We hope that by bringing together researchers from across cognitive science we will hear from a diverse set of perspectives regarding animacy representing a variety of research questions and methodologies within this larger topic Likewise we hope that the finished research topic will lead to an increased and more varied exploration of the role of animacy in our thoughts and actions and will appeal to readers across fields
