Talent Development in European Higher Education Dr. Marca V.C.

Wolfensberger, 2015-02-10 This book examines the much debated question of how to unleash the potential of young people with promising intellectual abilities and motivation It looks at the increasingly important topic of excellence in education and the shift in focus towards the provision of programs to support talented students in higher education It provides a systematic overview of programs for talented students at northern European higher education institutions HEIs Starting in the Netherlands where nearly all HEIs have developed honors programs over the past two decades the book explores three clusters of countries the Benelux the Nordic and the German speaking countries For each of these countries it discusses the local culture towards excellence the structure of the education system and the presence of honors programs In total the book reviews the special talent provisions for nearly four million students at 303 higher education institutions in eleven countries In addition it offers an analysis of the reasons to develop such programs a look into the future of honors education and a practical list of suggestions for further research The Sirius Program assigned Marca Wolfensberger to carry out this research

Recent Trends in Computational Engineering - CE2014 Miriam Mehl, Manfred Bischoff, Michael Schäfer, 2015-10-12 This book presents selected papers from the 3rd International Workshop on Computational Engineering held in Stuttgart from October 6 to 10 2014 bringing together innovative contributions from related fields with computer science and mathematics as an important technical basis among others The workshop discussed the state of the art and the further evolution of numerical techniques for simulation in engineering and science We focus on current trends in numerical simulation in science and engineering new requirements arising from rapidly increasing parallelism in computer architectures and novel mathematical approaches Accordingly the chapters of the book particularly focus on parallel algorithms and performance optimization coupled systems and complex applications and optimization iCEER2014-McMaster Digest Mohamed Bakr,Ahmed Elsharabasy,2014-11-18 International Conference on Engineering Education and Research Higher Education and Employability Peter J. Stokes,2017-11-14 2016 Phillip E Frandson Award for Literature in the Field of Professional Continuing and or Online Education University Professional and Continuing Education Association UPCEA Higher Education and Employability makes a crucial contribution to the current reassessment of higher education in the United States by focusing on how colleges and universities can collaborate with businesses in order to serve the educational and professional interests of their students Drawing on his extensive experience with universities and the business world Peter J Stokes argues that the need for closer alignment between the two sectors has never been more critical and that the opportunities for partnership have never been greater This book includes a series of trenchant case studies of particular universities that have developed ambitious collaborative programs New York University Northeastern University and the Georgia Institute of Technology Incisive and practical this book surveys the full range of current partnerships between businesses and higher education and points to opportunities that will best serve students now and in the future

Handbook of Research on Strategic Management of Interaction, Presence, and Participation in Online Courses Kyei-Blankson, Lydia,2015-11-05 Online learning has become a prominent and inseparable component of higher education in recent years Questions related to course structure levels of interaction presence and participation within online courses persist and invite further inquiry for determining factors that encourage effective teaching and learning in online environments The Handbook of Research on Strategic Management of Interaction Presence and Participation in Online Courses explores models of course development and delivery techniques to improve instruction learning and student satisfaction in online courses Covering topics such as rates of participation student engagement and retention and social development this handbook serves as a resource for educators in online learning environments as well as for course designers and developers of online courses and researchers whose agenda includes examining interaction presence and participation in online courses Handbook of Research on Quality Assurance and Value Management in Higher Education Nuninger, Walter,Châtelet, Jean-Marie,2016-03-21 The management of quality and sustainability in higher education institutions ensures that proper standards are maintained Such enforced standardization allows for the highest caliber of training opportunities for various fields and disciplines The Handbook of Research on Quality Assurance and Value Management in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on quality management and assurance programs and standards in college level environments Highlighting global perspectives on academic and professional learning this book is ideally designed for researchers policy makers practitioners and professionals actively involved in the field of higher education Handbook of Research on Study Abroad Programs and Outbound Mobility Velliari, Donna M., Coleman-George, Deb, 2016-08-24 Millions of students seek short and long term study abroad options every year and this trend is a key illustration of the internationalization of higher education Because a global perspective has become mandatory in the largely globalized workforce many institutions look to study abroad programs to prepare their students This outbound mobility has the potential to contribute to greater understanding between cultures countries and individuals The Handbook of Research on Study Abroad Programs and Outbound Mobility offers a comprehensive look into motivations for and opportunities through all forms of outbound mobility programs By providing empirically based research this publication establishes the benefits difficulties and rewards of building a framework to support international students and programs It is an invaluable resource for academics students policy makers course developers counselors and cross cultural student advisors Positioning Higher Education Institutions Rosalind M. O. Pritchard, Attila Pausits, James Williams, 2016-09-26 Higher education is of growing public and political importance for society and the economy Globalisation is transforming it from a local and national concern into one of international significance In order to fulfil societal governmental and business sector needs many universities are aiming to re position themselves The book initially considers their compass They aspire to transformational planning mission and strategy in which social justice is important people are not treated as mere means to an end and traditional moral positions are respected This transformational urge is sometimes vitiated by blunt demands of new public management that overlook universities potential for serving the public good The volume then addresses universities success in meeting their targets Often the challenge in evaluation is the need to reconcile tensions for example between structure and pastoral care of students institutional competition and collaboration roles of academics and administrators performance based funding versus increased differentiation Measurement is supposed to provide discipline align institutional and state policy and provide a vital impetus for change Yet many of these measurement instruments are not fully fit for purpose They do not take sufficient account of institutional missions either of old or of specialist universities and sophisticated measurement of the student experience requires massive resources Change and positioning have become increasingly key elements of a complex but heterogeneous sector requiring new services and upgraded instruments
