Greg Richards, Greg Richards, 2014-09-10 Task-Based Language Teaching and Assessment N. P. Sudharshana, Lina Mukhopadhyay, 2022-02-05 This book provides interdisciplinary perspectives on task based language teaching TBLT and task based language assessment TBLA in English as a second language ESL context It discusses theoretical and experimental insights of TBLT and TBLA from cognitive linguistic and psycholinguistic viewpoints The chapters written by leading language teaching specialists in the field introduce the reader to a comprehensive range of issues related to TBLT and TBLA such as curriculum design materials development and classroom teaching testing With interdisciplinary appeal the book is a valuable resource for researchers in task based language teaching and assessment It is equally useful for teachers to whom it offers practical suggestions for designing tasks for teaching and testing A Better Future Jacqueline Bhabha, Wenona Giles, Faraaz Mahomed, 2020-09-17 This book explores the exclusion of underprivileged groups from higher education a critical frontier for diversity and equality endeavors Global Health Collaboration Margaret S.
Winchester, Caprice A. Knapp, Rhonda BeLue, 2018-05-14 This stimulating open access volume details the innovative work of the Pan Institution Network for Global Health in creating collaborative research based answers to large scale health issues Equitable partnerships among member universities representing North America Africa Asia and Europe reverse standard cross national dynamics to develop locally relevant responses to health challenges as well as their underlying disparities Case studies focusing on multiple morbidities and effects of urbanization on health illustrate open dialogue in addressing HIV maternal child health diabetes and other major concerns These instructive examples model collaborations between global North and South as meaningful steps toward the emerging global future of public health Included in the coverage Building sustainable networks introducing the Pan Institution Network for Global Health Fostering dialogues in global health education a graduate and undergraduate approach Provider workload and multiple morbidities in the Caribbean and South Africa Project Redemption conducting research with informal workers in New York City Partnership and collaboration in global health valuing reciprocity Global Health Collaboration will interest faculty working within the field of global health scholars within public health health policy and cognate disciplines as well as administrators looking to develop international university partnerships around global health and graduate students in the areas of global health health administration and public health and related social sciences e g sociology anthropology demography Soft Power and Heritage Rodrigo Christofoletti, 2023-11-15 This book encourages a critical dialogue between interdisciplinary fields that border heritage boundaries and seeks to contribute a wide range of scholarly perspectives and case studies both national and international The widespread use of the concept of soft power is sometimes grossly misused as a synonym for anything other than military force While the concept is one of the most popular and influential in progressive foreign policy circles and is noted for being the ability of a country to convince others that its cause is the best without having to resort to economic or military threats the your ability to accurately describe the world we live in needs repair lenses The power of example the power of attraction through culture or in other words the ability of a country to attract others because of its culture and political values in its foreign policy that is soft power is something that emerges in partly because of government and partly in spite of governments To have soft power you need to be connected and the interaction management and dissemination of assets can be seen as exercises in soft power action This book seeks to detail in examples how the concept of soft power encompasses and problematizes the multiplicity of themes on the contemporary international agenda focusing on one of its least discussed elements the universe of international cultural heritage and the relationship between actors and society preservationist actions in the globalized world While cultural heritage embodies different values and can serve different economic social and political objectives in development contexts the past becomes a cultural currency when it becomes essential to the human experience

Secondary Cities and Development Lochner Marais, Etienne Nel, Ronnie Donaldson, 2016-05-20 The role secondary cities play in the global space economy and national urban hierarchies is increasingly receiving attention from scholars and international agencies most notably the Cities Alliance Secondary Cities and Development considers the role of secondary cities through the lens of South Africa a middle income country with characteristics of both the developed and developing worlds This book brings together a broad overview of international literature on secondary cities in South Africa and mirrors them against global experience Chapters emphasize the importance of secondary cities as regional services areas their potential roles in rural development the vulnerabilities to which they are prone and their significant potential By means of review six South African case studies and an assessment of contemporary policy approaches towards these cities this unique volume provides insight into a spectrum of globally significant challenges This book would be of interest to academics and policy makers working in urban studies or regional development

Universities, Inclusive Development and Social Innovation Claes Brundenius, Bo Göransson, José Manoel Carvalho de Mello, 2016-10-25 This book examines the ways in which universities can play a crucial role in inclusive development social innovation and social entrepreneurship It aims to prove the importance of inclusive development and inclusive innovation on economic growth and demonstrate the ways in which universities can be pioneers in this area through initiatives in social responsibility and social innovation For example providing access to a university education without discrimination of race gender income status or other factors would help to diminish the increasing income differentials currently being experienced in many countries especially in the developing world The research and studies included in this book provide insight into possible actions that can be taken by universities and public and private shareholders in inclusive development social innovation social entrepreneurship and overall regional economic and social development Innovation is currently considered to be the most important and dynamic factor explaining growth and development At the same time the traditional view considering innovation as having to be commercialized at any price is being challenged Lately there has been growing interest in innovation in the public sector particularly with respect to social innovations designed to reduce income inequality To address these concepts constant exchange of ideas and information between research groups became necessary UniDev Universities in Development the Evolving Role of Academic Institutions in Innovation Systems and Development is an international research group with researchers in twelve countries interested in the role of universities in development This book features the results of research performed by eleven research groups from UniDev country communities presenting in depth and comparative case studies from universities around the world including Latin America Northern and Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa This title will be of interest to students academics researchers and policy makers interested in the role of universities in development social innovation and social entrepreneurship

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter,2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions Perspectives on the Legislature and the Prospects of Accountability in Nigeria and South Africa Omololu Fagbadebo,Fayth Ruffin,2018-08-03 This book examines the problem of accountability in two African political systems South Africa and Nigeria Despite the principle of separation of powers and the doctrine of checks and balances among the institutions of governance a burgeoning governance crisis stifles the potential of accountability and good governance Legislative oversight in the two countries remains largely ineffective while citizens are left to face the consequences of the mismanagement of public resources by political elites This book critically assesses how the legislative institutions in South Africa and Nigeria have been unable to harness the requisite constitutional powers to ensure accountability in government and explores the feasibility of their effectiveness The book begins with a comparative analysis of the principles tradition and powers associated with legislative capability in South Africa and Nigeria The chapters explore constitutional provisions and analyze the capacity of each legislature to function within its respective political environment The book also examines the process and challenges associated with the various measures and mechanisms available for legislatures to ensure accountability in the two countries Researchers scholars and students of African politics will find this book useful in their understanding of the problems associated with the simmering governance crisis in South Africa and Nigeria

Tourism

Economics Metin Kozak, 2015-09-04 This book examines tourism economics in detail providing a range of specific case studies of tourism operations in various countries across the world The contributors to this volume are from diverse locations with ten countries across four continents represented namely Canada China Greece India Iran Poland Portugal South Africa Spain and the USA The book is systematic in structure and thorough in content and will be useful for both academics and tourism professionals seeking to update their knowledge and practice of tourism economics and to contribute to the field by developing further research proposals at both the micro and macro levels
