education acknowledge that the resolution of language problems associated with breaking down language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of learners self identities and national identities is ongoing In fact even with decades of research in home language use in the classroom there are still classrooms worldwide where learners are deprived of the opportunity of building their self esteem confidence and autonomy by communicating with their native language The global nature of communication requires speakers to use all the languages in their repertoire effectively thus reinforcing the need to encourage home language use in classrooms Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms is a cutting edge research publication on the effective use of home language in the classroom that emphasizes the significance of this activity to the success of the overall language development of the learner Particular attention is given to transformative pedagogy and the provision of valuable insights into how the teacher can guide and assist learners in the development of critical thinking skills In addition the book provides content that enables practitioners in language education and parents to explore their roles in assisting children in breaking down the language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of their self identity and national identity Highlighting topics such as engineering education cultural responsiveness and transformative pedagogy this book is essential for linguists academicians education professionals curriculum designers policymakers administrators instructional designers researchers and students

Teaching English as an Additional Language in Secondary Schools Seán Bracken, Catharine Driver, Karima Kadi-Hanifi, 2016-11-10 With increasing numbers of learners in secondary schools having English as an additional language it is crucial for all teachers to understand the learning requirements of these students and plan distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them This book provides school leaders trainee teachers and qualified teachers with the skills and practical knowledge they need to strengthen the learning outcomes of students for whom English is an additional language Teaching English as an Additional Language in Secondary Schools sets out realistic ways in which EAL learners can be engaged and stretched in their learning building on their prior literacy cultural experiences and language learning It clearly explains the theory and key research into how additional languages are acquired and offers practical classroom teaching and learning strategies to show teachers how they can help EAL learners to access the curriculum and reflect on their learning through assessments Features include tasks to help put the ideas into practice case studies illustrating the key challenges faced by EAL learners summaries of key research findings reflections to encourage deeper thinking Drawing on the daily experiences of teachers and teaching assistants this book will be essential reading for all trainee and practising teachers that want to ensure students with EAL fulfil their true learning potential

Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry
