2015 2016 Cutoff Kenya:

Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa Kenya International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2018-10-23 This 2018 Article IV Consultation highlights that Kenya has maintained strong growth in recent years External imbalances have narrowed strengthening resilience to shocks The business environment continues to improve supporting private investment However a severe drought an extended presidential election and weak bank lending due in part to interest rate controls slowed growth in 2017 Kenya s medium term growth prospects are favorable supported by infrastructure investment and an improving business environment However continued strong growth and macroeconomic stability hinge on the implementation of reforms In addition headwinds from fiscal consolidation and weak credit growth will weigh on economic activity in the near term The Report: Kenya 2017 , As the largest economy in the EAC and COMESA in terms of GDP Kenya has positioned itself as a major economic power in sub Saharan Africa Traditionally a largely agrarian economy Kenya has quickly entrenched its position as a manufacturing logistics and technology hub in the region and this diversification forms a solid platform from which the government can generate economic growth over the coming years The resolution of the electoral process improving business confidence and strong private consumption are likely to support GDP expansion over 2018 and into 2019 In April 2018 the IMF estimated the economy would expand by 5.5% in 2018 and 6% in 2019 compared to 4.8% in 2017 Capitalism and Economic Crime in Africa Jörg Wiegratz, 2024-06-21 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of economic crimes and market irregularities including matters of trickery parallel economy illicit trade economies of violence and criminalisation of the poor in neoliberal Africa It investigates economic crime as a phenomenon of neoliberal reform and transformation and it unpacks crime as a societal and particularly as a political economic phenomenon under capitalism The book brings together a collection of research articles briefings and updated blog posts that were published over a period of nearly 40 years 1986 2023 in the acclaimed journal Review of African Political Economy ROAPE and on its website roape.net Featuring contributions from leading experts in the field including a foreword by Yusuf K Serunkuma and an afterword by Laureen Snider this volume explores what these crimes have to do with and can tell us about state business relations regulation capitalist transformation and the corporation on the continent shedding light on the co production of the crimes by a range of actors from the realms of business politics state and international development including major reform advocates such as international financial institutions IFIs and other donors It responds to the imperative to advance the analysis of the link between capitalism and crime in Africa and to locate capitalism more centrally in the analysis of economic crimes as more African countries move from being societies with capitalism to capitalist societies Illustrating the relevance of African countries to debates in criminology corporate crime state crime crimes of the powerful and illegality this volume engages with and mobilises a variety of literatures to analyse economic crimes as phenomena of global and local capitalism and provides readers from academia government business media civil society and education a striking source of information and analysis

An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock, 2017-03-27 In twentieth century Kenya age and gender were powerful cultural and political forces that animated household and generational relationships They also shaped East Africans contact with and influence on emergent colonial and global ideas about age and masculinity Kenyan men and boys came of age achieving their manhood through changing rites of passage and access to new outlets such as town life crime anticolonial violence and nationalism And as they did the colonial government appropriated masculinity and maturity as means of statecraft and control In An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock positions age and gender at the heart of everyday life and state building in Kenya He excavates in unprecedented ways how the evolving concept of youth motivated and energized colonial power and the movements against it exploring the masculinities boys and young men debated and performed as they crisscrossed the colony in search of wages or took the Mau Mau oath Yet he also considers how British officials own ideas about masculinity shaped not only young African men s ideas about manhood but the very nature of colonial rule An Uncertain Age joins a growing number of histories that have begun to break down monolithic male identities to push the historiographies of Kenya and empire into new territory

Queer Objects to the Rescue George Paul Meiu,2023-12-13 Examines forms of intimate citizenship that have emerged in relation to growing anti homosexual violence in Kenya Campaigns calling on police and citizens to purge their countries of homosexuality have taken hold across the world But the homosexual threat they claim to be addressing is not always easy to identify To make that threat visible leaders media and civil society groups have deployed certain objects as signifiers of queerness In Kenya for example bead necklaces plastics and even diapers have come to represent the danger posed by homosexual behavior to an essentially virile construction of national masculinity In Queer Objects to the Rescue George Paul Meiu explores objects that have played an important and surprising role in both state led and popular attempts to rid Kenya of various imagined threats to intimate life Meiu shows that their use in the political imaginary has been crucial to representing the homosexual body as a societal threat and as a target of outrage violence and exclusion while also crystallizing anxieties over wider political and economic instability To effectively understand and critique homophobia Meiu suggests we must take these objects seriously and recognize them as potential sources for new forms of citizenship intimacy resistance and belonging Quotas - Data Update and Simulations International Monetary Fund. Finance Dept.,International Monetary Fund. Statistics Dept.,2016-09-08 The quota database has been updated by one year through 2014 Overall the results of the update continue the broad trends observed in previous updates but the shifts between the main country groups are generally smaller Using the current quota formula the calculated quota share of Emerging Market and Developing Countries EMDCs as a group increases by 0.6 percentage points relative to the 2015 update to 49.3 percent which is about half the increase in the last update The paper takes stock of recent discussions on the quota formula including the outcome of the Quota Formula Review in 2013 and subsequent discussions in the context of the annual quota data updates It also updates the illustrative simulations of possible reforms of the quota formula presented previously using the latest data These simulations have sought to capture possible reforms that would be broadly in line with the conclusions of the Quota Formula Review and Directors guidance is sought on the relative merits of these reforms and the most productive areas for future work Download Quota Data Updated IMF Quota Formula Variables September 2016 African Disability Rights Yearbook Volume 5 2017 Charles Ngwena, Ilze Grobbelaar-du Plessis, Helene Combrinck, Serges Djouyou Kamga, 2017-01-01 About the publication The African Disability Rights Yearbook addresses disability rights within the foundational structure laid down by the inaugural issue The structure comprises a tripartite division between articles country reports and shorter commentaries on recent regional and sub regional developments The African Disability Rights Yearbook aims to advance disability scholarship Coming in the wake of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities it is the first peer reviewed journal to focus exclusively on disability as human rights on the African continent It provides an annual forum for scholarly analysis on issues pertaining to the human rights of persons with disabilities It is also a source for country based reports as well as commentaries on recent developments in the field of disability rights in the African region The African Disability Rights Yearbook publishes peer reviewed contributions dealing with the rights of persons with disabilities and related topics with specific relevance to Africa Africans and scholars of Africa The Yearbook appears annually under the aegis of the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria The Yearbook is an open access online publication see www.adry.up.ac.za About the editors Charles Ngwena is Professor Department of Constitutional Law and Legal Philosophy Faculty of Law University of the Free State South Africa Ilze Grobbelaar du Plessis is a senior lecturer and holds the degrees BLuris LLB LLM LLD from the University of Pretoria Helene Combrinck is Associate Professor at the Centre for Disability Law and Policy University of the Western Cape Serges Djouyou Kamga is Senior Lecturer at TMALI UNISA Table of Contents SECTION A ARTICLES The Basic Education Act of 2013 as a tool for advancing early childhood development and education for children with disabilities in Kenya Mirriam Nthenge Access to justice of children with disabilities in defilement cases a myth or reality Bernadette Malunga Ngeyi Ruth Kanyongolo Ngcimezile Mbano Mweso The socio economic rights of children with disabilities in South Africa A comparison between the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child and the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Zita Hansungule Trynie Boezaart De stigmatising psychosocial disabilities in South Africa Faraaz Mahomed Michael Ashley Stein Mental illness stigma and disability rights in Ghana Magnus Mfoafo M Carthy Jeff Grischow Albinism in Africa A proposed conceptual
