Bennett,2015-08-18 And the rains came Not in the real world where the sun shined brightly overhead but in the now dark awakened corners of Greys mind Every time he closed his eyes a kaleidoscope of colors would reflect off the heavens and dance with the lightning above If he listened carefully he could hear the night singing like a voltage through the ground It was a strange feeling one that he was just beginning to understand The accident had obviously altered more than the structure of the car It had almost killed him The trauma he incurred had opened a new door into the powers of his mind He had been given a gift one which enabled him to see into the lives of others Their thoughts of good and evil were now toys for his amusement That or nightmares in the delicate strength of his grasp His hands had become windows to the soul Now with the help of an old friend and that of a salient priest he would soon learn the truth about why all of this madness had suddenly come to pass In the midst of the storm Grey Thomas couldnt help but continue to look for the light
