Abend-David,2019-02-21 In an increasingly global and multilingual society translators have transitioned from unobtrusive stagehands to key intercultural mediators a development that is reflected in contemporary media From Coppola's Lost in Translation to television's House M.D. and from live performance to social media translation is rendered as not only utilitarian but also performative and communicative In examining translation as a captivating theme in film television commercials and online content this multinational collection engages with the problems and limitations faced by translators as well as the ethical and philosophical aspects of translation and Translation Studies Contributors examine the role of the translator as protagonist agent negotiator and double agent translation in global communication the presentation of visual texts multilingualism in contemporary media and the role of foreign languages in advertisements Translation and translators are shown as inseparable parts of a contemporary life that is increasingly multilingual multiethnic multinational and socially
