

Multi-Source Argumentative Research Essay

Purpose:

This assignment provides you with the opportunity to practice using the sources you identified in the Annotated Bibliography assignment to write an essay that both presents and explores a variety of perspectives and research on a significant research question and uses that information to develop your own tentative answer.

This provides practice in the elements of critical thinking such as:

- Identifying and analyzing alternative perspectives,
- Using evidence to support your own position, and
- Articulating underlying assumptions, values and beliefs of different arguments, including your own.

Description:

The deets:

- 7 to 8 pages, 12 point Times, double-spaced
- References at least 7 sources (not limited to the Annotated Bibliography)
- Includes a MLA style Works Cited page
- Uses MLA in-text citation style

Grading Criteria:

Focus

- All of the parts of the essay relate to the research question/main claim.
- The body of the essay develops the writer's position.

Organization

- The introduction engages the audience, provides appropriate background to the issue or question, and makes clear its significance.
- The sections and paragraphs are in a logical, purposeful order that is signaled with clear transitions.
- The paragraphs are unified and cohesive.
- Includes a conclusion that brings closure to the argument.

Support

- Sources are adequately attributed, summarized and evaluated.
- Relationships between sources are explored, if appropriate.
- The writer's position is supported by reasons and evidence.

Correctness

- The surface characteristics meet expectations for college writing.

Logical Argument in the Research Paper Russ Ward, 1997 Logical Argument in the Research Paper operates on the premise that collegiate-level writing, when cast in its most significant and sophisticated form, is argumentative. Students are shown how writers examine a potential topic, establish a stance upon that topic, defend the stance, avoid reasoning and ethical errors, and in general, say something meaningful about the topic. It also includes instruction about finding sources, gathering information from them, and correctly documenting them. However, the emphasis remains on how effective writers evaluate sources, think about the information they discover, prepare a fair and informed argument, rethink and revise the argument, and finally present an argument in its completed form. Logical Argument in the Research Paper will help students learn some of the reasoning processes that all writers use when composing the
