

Advocating for Change: Lowering the Drinking Age to 18

5 pages | 1176 words

Purpose: To persuade my audience that the drinking age should be lowered to the age of 18. Thesis: To have the ability to lower the drinking age we must first look at new ways to educate our young adults, realize the role of our parents, and we must also look at the effects of a lower drinking age in other countries.

I. Introduction

A. Attention Getter: Can you honestly say that you never drank alcohol during high school? If so, you are in a distinct minority: nearly 80% of high school seniors admit to at least trying a drink. I found this statistic on alcoholnews.org B. Relevance: This topic is very relevant to us as a whole because we are either 18 or somewhere between 18 and 21, and we are pressured everyday to break the law by "illegally" drinking alcohol. C. Credibility: I am credible to speak about this topic because as a college student that goes to parties I constantly have the pressure put onto me to drink. I would be lying to you if I said that I do not drink, but there is a difference between getting drunk and drinking responsibly. When I do drink I try to drink responsibly and I find that it creates a more comfortable setting, and as a 19 year old I always have the feeling that what I am doing is wrong just because it is illegal.

D. Thesis: To have the ability to lower the drinking age we must first look at new ways to educate our young adults, realize the role of our parents, and we must also look at the effects of a lower drinking age in other countries. E. Preview: First, I will speak about ways that we can educate young adults to make the correct decisions about drinking alcohol. Next, I will show you that our parents have a greater impact on us than we may think, and lastly I will speak about why we have different laws set in place in America that are no where else in the world. II. A. As it stands now

1. Some of you might be saying, "If we are going to lower the drinking age then we are going to have more deaths from drinking." I beg to differ, I have found an article entitled Setting the Bar at 18, in the magazine U.S. News and World Report, which speaks about the subject with a few ideas as how to regulate the consumption of alcohol for 18 year olds. 2. It is evident that alcohol is in the life of young adults between 18-20, and not just people who are 21. An exact quote from John McCardell, the head of Choose Responsibility, that really caught my eye was, "Public policy should not be to try to change deeply seated human behavior. The goal should be to create the safest possible environment for that reality to take place." This quote hits everything that I could possibly tell you directly on the nose. Do not stop the unstoppable, make the unstoppable...
