Organizers Debra Housel, 2008-09 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers Transforming Talk into Text—Argument Writing, Inquiry, and Discussion, Grades 6-12 Thomas M. McCann, 2014-05-23 Author Thomas McCann invites readers to rethink their approach to teaching writing by capitalizing on students instinctive desire to talk Drawing on extensive classroom research he shows teachers how to craft class discussions that build students skills of analysis problem solving and argumentation as a means of improving student writing McCann demonstrates how authentic discussions immerse learners in practices that become important when they write Chapters feature portraits of teachers at work including transcripts that reveal patterns of talk across a set of lessons Interviews with the teachers and samples of student writing afford readers a deeper understanding of process Students also report on how classroom discussions supported their effort to produce persuasive argument driven essays Book Features A focus on the thinking behind the practice as opposed to a collection of lesson ideas Connections to important elements from the Common Core State Standards especially arguments writing Examples of students at work with examples of the writing that emerges from their discussions Portraits of skilled teachers as they promote inquiry and sequence and facilitate discussions Appendices with problem based scenarios interview questions for students and teachers samples of debatable cases in the news and more In this important book Tom McCann has given us not only the admonition to change but the details about what effective change must be and what it looks like evidence that it works effectively and details about how to bring it to pass From the Foreword by George Hillocks Jr Professor Emeritus Department of English University of Chicago For a professional book to have an impact on the field it needs to address a perceived need Writing arguments for Common Core performance assessments is a HUGE need right now that this book helps address Carol Jago associate director California Reading and Literature Project UCLA
