When it is known that an employee is guilty of theft or other dishonest act, how is coverage affected?

Coverage will continue if the employee agrees to make complete restitution.

Coverage continues until the expiration date of the coverage.

Coverage is cancelled immediately.

Coverage will continue if an additional premium is charged for the increased exposure. -

----- Correct Answer ----- The correct answer is: Coverage is cancelled immediately.

EXPLANATION:

When it is known that an employee has committed a crime, the coverage for that employee terminates immediately for future losses.

The insured car dealer carries dealer's physical damage coverage with comprehensive and collision coverage. One of the salesmen allows an old customer to test drive a van. The customer steals the car and it is later found heavily damaged in an accident. The adjuster will:

Pay the claim under "theft" since the insured carries comprehensive coverage.

Pay the claim under "collision" since the insured carries collision coverage.

Deny the claim unless the insured carries "false pretense" coverage.

Deny the claim unless the insured carries "drive other car" coverage. ----- Correct Answer ----- The correct answer is: Deny the claim unless the insured carries "false pretense" coverage.
