

The background of the entire cover is a close-up, high-contrast photograph of the Chicago Police Seal. The seal is circular, with a blue outer ring containing the word "POLICE" in white, serif capital letters. Above the word "POLICE" are five white stars. The center of the seal features a detailed illustration of a cityscape with a prominent tower, likely the Willis Tower. The overall color scheme is dominated by blue and white, with some darker shadows and highlights from the lighting of the original photograph.
