The U S Army exists for one reason to serve the Nation From the earliest days of its creation the Army has embodied and defended the American way of life and its constitutional system of government It will continue to answer the call to fight and win our Nation s wars whenever and wherever they may occur That is the Army s non negotiable contract with the American people The Army will do whatever the Nation asks it to do from decisively winning wars to promoting and keeping the peace To this end the Army must be strategically responsive and ready to be dominant at every point across the full spectrum of military operations Today the Army must meet the challenge of a wider range of threats and a more complex set of operating environments while incorporating new and diverse technology The Army meets these challenges through its core competencies Shape the Security Environment Prompt Response Mobilize the Army Forcible Entry Operations Sustained Land Dominance and Support Civil Authorities We must maintain combat readiness as our primary focus while transitioning to a more agile versatile lethal and survivable Army Doctrine represents a professional army s collective thinking about how it intends to fight train equip and modernize When the first edition of FM 25 100 Training the Force was published in 1988 it represented a revolution in the way the Army trains The doctrine articulated by FMs 25 100 Training the Force and 25 101 Battle Focused Training has served the Army well These enduring principles of training remain sound much of the content of these manuals remains valid for both today and well into the future FM 7 0 updates FM 25 100 to our current operational environment and will soon be followed by FM 7 1 which will update FM 25 101 FM 7 0 is the Army s capstone training doctrine and is applicable to all units at all levels and in all components While the examples in this manual are principally focused at division and below FM 7 0 provides the essential fundamentals for all individual leader and unit training Training for warfighting is our number one priority in peace and in war Warfighting readiness is derived from tactical and technical competence and confidence Competence relates to the ability to fight our doctrine through tactical and technical execution Confidence is the individual and collective belief that we can do all things better than the adversary and the unit possesses the trust and will to accomplish the mission FM 7 0 provides the training and leader development methodology that forms the foundation for developing competent and confident soldiers and units that will win decisively in any environment Training is the means to achieve tactical and technical competence for specific tasks conditions and standards Leader Development is the deliberate continuous sequential and progressive process based on Army values that develops soldiers and civilians into competent and confident leaders capable of decisive action Closing the gap between training leader development and battlefield performance has always been the critical challenge for any army Overcoming this challenge requires achieving the correct balance between training management and training execution Training management focuses leaders on the science of training in terms of resource efficiencies such as people time and ammunition measured against tasks and standards Training execution focuses leaders on the art of leadership to develop trust will and teamwork under varying conditions intangibles that must be developed to win decisively in combat Leaders integrate this science and art to identify the right tasks conditions and standards in training foster unit will and spirit and then adapt to the battlefield to win decisively

Battle Focused Training Department of the Army,2003-09-15 FM 7 1 is the Army s doctrinal foundation for how to train and it is applicable to all units and organizations of the Army It explains how the Army assesses plans prepares and executes training and leader development it is critical to all the Army does The goal of this manual is to create leaders who know how to think and apply enduring training principles to their units and organizations FM 7 0 introduces the training cycle the linkage of Army training and leader development and the three domains where training occurs the operational institutional and self development domains FM 7 1 defines The Army Training System outlines who is responsible for training and training support and describes how to conduct training This top to bottom understanding of training ranging from policy and resources allocation at Headquarters Department of the Army to unit and organization methods is critical to executing training successfully and to linking the three domains where training occurs The training doctrine in this manual will shape Army training regulations and support unit and organization training plans The emphasis is on teaching leaders to think through the training process as opposed to simply following a prescribed method There is no training model or strategy that can achieve warfighting readiness in a unit without intensive leadership to build both competence and confidence FM 7 1 builds on task condition and standards based training Knowing the task assessing the level of proficiency against the standard and developing a sustaining or improving training plan is the essence of all Army training and development But warfighting readiness is about more than just technical competence It is about developing confidence through trust soldier to soldier leader to leader and unit to unit and the will to succeed It is about leadership Understanding how to conduct tough realistic training at every echelon of the Army sets the foundation for successful multiechelon joint interagency and coalition operations Leaders train the unit and organizational capabilities required to fight and win across the full spectrum of operations This manual provides leaders with the doctrinal guidelines for how to train and is the basis for successful training and operations Soldiers have never let the nation fail it is essential to train soldiers and units to uphold the Army s nonnegotiable contract with the American people to fight and win the nation s wars decisively 21st Century U.S. Military Manuals Department of Defense,U. S. Military,U. S. Army,2017-10-29 Training the Force Field Manual FM 25 100 FM 7 0 is the Army s capstone training doctrine and is applicable to all units at all levels and in all components While the examples in this manual are principally focused at division and below FM 7 0 provides the essential fundamentals for all individual leader and unit training Training for warfighting is our number one priority in peace and in war Warfighting readiness is derived from tactical and technical competence and confidence Competence relates to the ability to fight our doctrine through tactical and technical execution Confidence is the individual and collective belief that we can do all things better than the adversary and the unit possesses the trust and will to accomplish the mission FM 7 0 provides the training and leader development methodology that forms the foundation for developing competent and confident soldiers and units that will win decisively in any environment Training is the means to achieve tactical and technical competence for specific tasks conditions and standards Leader Development is the deliberate continuous sequential and progressive process based on Army values that develops soldiers and civilians into competent and confident leaders capable of decisive action Closing the gap between training leader development and battlefield performance has always been the critical challenge for any army United States Army Training Manual United States.
